2 Where there is no sewer, the licensee shall collect the waste water from a place licensed under section 370 in properly constructed cesspools. Such cesspools shall be periodically cleansed or treated by the licensee in such a way as to render them inoffensive by activated sludge process or the contents thereof shall be otherwise disposed of in such manner as may be required by the Sanitary Inspector, Health Officer, or Chairman

3 The licensee shall arrange for sufficient supply of water for cleansing the place licensed under section 370

4 The licensee shall not cause or suffer any skin or hide which by reason of decomposition has become useless for the purpose of leather dressing, to be kept for a longer time than may be necessary in any part of the place licensed under section 370

5 The licensee shall, at the close of every working day, cause every floor or pavement in the place licensed under section 370 to be thoroughly swept and washed. 6 The licensee shall cause the supply of water in every tank or other receptacle used upon the place licensed under section 370 for the washing or soaking of any skin or hide and not being a lining pit to be renewed as often as may be necessary to prevent the emission of noxious or injurious effluvia from the contents of the tank or other receptacles

NOTICE is hereby given that at an extraordinary general meeting of the abovenamed Company held on 14th February 1936 the following resolutions were unanimously accepted and they were confirmed in another extraordinary general meeting held on 6th March 1936 and were taken as special resolutions—

1 Whereas it has become impossible to manage the affairs of the bank properly in view of the events that, save the deposit of the cash security of the secretary, all the depositors of the bank have withdrawn their deposits that new deposits are not forthcoming for a long time that some of the shareholders of the bank have borrowed money which they are now unable to repay and the securities thereof are trying to avoid liabilities that many of the shareholders have made defaults in the payment of their share money and on demand they express their inability to pay the same and that in view of the economic depression and other causes of the like nature, this meeting unanimously resolved—

That (a) this the Bagbari Loan Co., Ltd., be voluntarily wound up (without taking any help of the Court)

That (b) in absence of any debt of the Company, no call of share money due or to be due be made

That (c) it is very much difficult and expensive to ascertain the assets and liabilities of the bank. The liquidator may do so, so far as it is possible easily and without any delay. But without long waiting for ascertainment, the liquidator may, in the opinion of the majority of the directors, ascertain the assets of the Company in pro-rata of the realised share money and divide the assets so ascertained according to the right and interest in the Company among the shareholders individually or jointly in case there are more than one shareholder willing to have joint division and giving consent thereto in writing. The liquidator may execute any document if necessary. This act of distribution shall be binding upon all the shareholders. If the amount of debt of any particular shareholders or set of shareholders exceeds the ascertained value of his right and interests in the Company, then to that extent his debt shall be set off. He shall be held liable for the rest of his debt, which shall be realised from him in cash or in execution of decree. If any shareholder does not accept the assets so ascertained, in satisfaction of his right and interests in the Company, those rights and interests shall be considered as paid and if any promissory document be time barred, the Company or the liquidator shall not be held responsible.

That (d) immediately before the act of distribution the shareholders are entitled to transfer their respective shares in the Company and the liquidator may, upon proper and sufficient evidence, recognise the transferee and his claim. Upon the distribution of the shares, the same shall be considered as satisfied. After that the shareholder may transfer assets distributed to him.

2 That (1) Dhanmamud Mondal of Bagbari, police-station Gabtali, district Bogra, (2) M. Tamu Uddin Mondal of Kolakopa, police-station Gabtali, Bogra, (3) M. NOTIFICATION

No 900L C — 11th March, 1936 — With reference to the footnote at the end of the Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Water Hyacinth Bill, 1935, published with notification No 842L C, dated the 3rd March, 1936, in Part IV of the Calcutta Gazette of the 5th March, 1936, it is hereby notified for general information that Dr Naresh Chandra Sen Gupta, M L C, has subsequently signed the said Report subject to the minute of dissent

Minute of dissent by Dr. Naresh Chandra Sen Gupta, M.L.C., to the Bengal Water Hyacinth Bill, 1935.

I reiterate my opinion which I expressed when the Bill was under discussion in the Council that the Bill was fragmentary and inadequate, principally because (1) it did not make any provision for Government doing its due share of work, and (2) it aimed at doing the work piecemeal, area by area, instead of one great offensive all over the province at the same time

The scope of the Bill is limited to providing that no one shall keep water hyacinth on his land or water in a notified area and prescribing penalties for violation of the order. We are assured that such provisions are necessary in order to enable the authorities to carry out programmes for eradication of water hyacinth and nothing more was needed

If this is the sole object of the Bill, it is difficult to see any justification for the provisions of clauses 9 and 10, not to carry out the work of destruction, but only to discover water hyacinth. Considering that water hyacinth is not a weed which anybody would care to keep concealed or can keep concealed for long, these inquisitorial processes are wholly uncalled for

It would be more to the purpose to authorise destruction parties to pursue water hyacinth to the remotest nook and corner and to remove any obstruction to their work. Thus the Bill fails to provide except by the addition of the words "or destruction" to clause 9 which seems to me not quite an elegant way of doing it

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In spite of elaborate attempts made in 1928, in bringing this Act up to a standard of perfection, recent experience has shown that some drafting errors have still crept into the language of some of the newly added sections of the Act. This Bill seeks to remove these defects in the Act.

Besides, experience shows that through failure on the part of the legislature to keep the correct principles in view while framing section 50 of the Act in 1885, injustice now occurs to the landlords who have not been in possession of their estates or tenures, as the case may be, since 1793, when they are compelled to produce rebutting evidence against the presumption. In the circumstances they are placed, they cannot do so, and for this failure on their part, they are hardly responsible. It is therefore only fair and equitable that this defect in the Act should be removed at once, and with this object in view also, this Bill is laid before the House for favourable consideration.

(AMENDMENT) BILL, 1936

A BILL

further to amend the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation, 1819

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation, 1819, in the manner hereinafter appearing, Reg VIII of 1819

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor General has been obtained under sub section (3) of section 80A of the Government of India Act to the passing of this Act, 5 and 6,
Geo V, c
61; 6 and 7, Geo V,

and 10,
Geo V, c

It is hereby enacted as follows —

Short title.

1 This act may be called the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation (Amendment) Act, 1936

Amendment of section 14 of Regulation VIII
of 1819

2 After clause second of section 14 of the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation, 1819, the following clause be added, namely —

“Third The Civil Court may, on the application of the zamindar or of auction purchaser, direct that any sum in deposit with the Collector as purchase money for a sale held under section 9 of this Regulation, shall be invested pending the decision by the Civil Court, of a suit for the reversal of such sale and thereupon the Collector shall remit the said sum

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Section 14A of the Bengal Patni Taluks Regulation, 1819, lays down that "if any objection is made by the zemindar or auction purchaser, the Collector shall refer the application together with the objection to the nearest Civil Court having jurisdiction," etc

Under sub-section sixth clause of section 14A "the Civil Court may direct that any sum in deposit with the Collector shall be invested pending the decision of the application by the Civil Court," etc

But there is no such provision for the investment of the purchase money if a suit be instituted under section 14 in the Civil Court to set aside a sale held under section 9

The object of this Bill is to provide a provision on the basis of sixth-clause of section 14A, for the investment of the purchase money held by the Collector when a civil suit is instituted under section 14 and thus to remedy a defect which now prejudices the interests of the parties concerned

Investment of money in Government securities after the suit to set aside a sale, will not be prejudicial to the interest of any of the parties. On the other hand, it will be beneficial to all the parties concerned, no matter, how the suit be finally decided. For example, if the sale be set aside, the purchaser will get the refund of the money with interest, if, on the other hand, the sale is confirmed, the outgoing patnidar will get the money with interest. But if the investment is not made, one of the parties will suffer heavily. Usually it takes several years to have the final decision in Civil Court and the purchase money, which is usually a heavy amount, remains uninvested all these years at the cost of the parties

THE BENGAL MEDICAL (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1936.

A
BILL*further to amend the Bengal Medical Act, 1914*

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Medical Act, 1914, for the purposes hereinafter appearing, Ben Act IV of 1914

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor General under sub section (3) of section 80A of the Government of India Act has been obtained to the passing of this Act, 5 and 6 Geo V, c 61, 6 and 7, Geo V, c 37, 9 and 10, Geo V c 101

It is hereby enacted as follows —

Short title,
extent and commencement

1 (a) This Act may be called the Bengal Medical (Amendment) Act, 1936

(b) It shall extend to the whole of Bengal

(c) It shall come into force immediately

Amendment of section 17

2 (i) In section 17 insert the following as the first proviso, viz —

“(i) Provided that the Governor in Council may, after consulting the Medical Council, permit the registration of—

(a) any person who has undergone a full course of training in any medical college or school and has obtained a certificate to that effect from the head of such college or school and who was practising as a medical practitioner on the date when the Act came into force, and

(b) any person who has obtained proper training in any medical institution and joined the medical profession before the 5th September, 1935, provided that he passes a special examination such as the Medical Council may hold for the purpose of granting registration

(ii) In the existing proviso to section 17, insert the word ‘also’ between the word ‘Provided’ and the words ‘that the Council may’ ”

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

From some time past it has been felt that the provisions of the Bengal Medical Act, 1914, are causing much hardship to a large number of persons who, though properly trained and possessed of degrees, diplomas, certificates, etc., from sources other than those recognised by the authorities and though they had been actually practising medicine, surgery and midwifery from before 1914, cannot get themselves registered and thus become qualified medical practitioners. Practitioners with similar qualification in other provinces, viz., Bombay, the Punjab, the United Provinces, Burma, etc., have been given the privilege of registration long ago, either by amendments of the Acts of the respective provinces or by Government notification. In Bengal nothing in this direction has been done up to date. These practitioners of Bengal have, therefore, formed themselves into a corporate body under the name and style of the "Bengal Medical Union" and have been making representations which should not be altogether ignored. The redress sought for may be given by a simple amendment of the Bengal Medical Act, and it is the object of the present Bill to make this amendment.

The Bengal Medical Act, 1914, in seeking to give protection to the public against quacks, omitted to make provision for the safety of those doctors who had obtained diplomas and certificates from various well organised and efficient medical institutions before the passing of the Act, who had been practising with ability and reputation for a long time and who could by no stretch of language be called quacks. Yet, in the result, these able, experienced and well reputed doctors have been classed among the quacks. Many of them have been thrown out of employ from hospitals, tea gardens, ships, steamers, etc., debarred from granting certificates of birth or of illness, and handicapped in many other ways. Their difficulties increased when the Poison Act (Act XII of 1919) came into force and prohibited them from procuring for their patients the requisite drugs included in the schedule of poisons. The transitory provision by Government for an examination of these doctors by the State Medical Faculty was in force only for two years from the passing of the Bengal Medical Act, 1914. The time was too short for the majority to avail themselves of the concession, and moreover a good many did not even get the necessary information within the period. Such people are now on the brink of starvation. Many of them have outgrown the age at which a change of avocation is possible, and, for obvious reasons, a fresh examination also is out of the question. The proposed proviso (1) (a) of the Bill is intended to meet the cause of these people.

The case of those who have obtained proper training in unrecognised medical institutions since 1914 stands on a similar footing. Several unregistered doctors, who had received their training in such institutions, are now serving in tea gardens, coal mines, etc., and they have been highly spoken of by their superior medical officers, both Indian and European. Some of these unrecognised institutions have since been recognised, but the students, who completed their course of education therein and began to practise before such recognition, have been left in the lurch. We therefore find good doctors trained at the same institutions, one set of whom—the older and the more experienced set—are unqualified for want of registration, while another set are qualified by registration. Under these circumstances it is but fair and equitable that such students be given at least one chance of being qualified. Hence the necessity for proviso (1) (b).

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Though Bengal Regulation VII of 1822 gives sufficient authority for the settlement of revenue, the Regulation does not specifically distinguish between agricultural lands and non-agricultural lands. Furthermore, that Regulation contemplates the adjustment of relationship between landlord and tenant at the time of settlement of the revenue with the object of equalizing the public burthens.

Under the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, though settlement of fair rent is provided for in agricultural lands, non agricultural lands are specifically excluded from the operation of the sections dealing with settlement of fair rent. It has been found with the growth of towns that lands originally leased as agricultural holdings have wholly or partly ceased to be used for agricultural purposes. In order to secure the proper revenue on such lands without interfering with contracts made between parties, which, in so far as the rent is concerned, could not legally extend beyond the term of the settlement made by the Government, it is desirable to make clear provisions for the assessment of revenue on such lands and to make such assessments legally binding on the Government's direct tenants either in a Government estate or in an estate held khas on account of recusancy of the proprietors. There have been numerous cases where, on account of failure of the tenant to agree under the law of contract to the terms offered by the Government, costly litigation has ensued with the detriment of the tenant as the ultimate result.

It is intended that this Bill shall provide a means of securing the proper assessment on such lands without undue interference with liberty of contract.

NOTES ON CLAUSES

Clause 3 authorises the Revenue officer to estimate fair and equitable rents and to prepare an assessment roll for non agricultural lands when a record of rights is prepared in respect of any local area, etc., of which a settlement of land revenue is to be made.

Clause 4 deals with the method of estimating fair and equitable rents.

Clause 5 provides for the procedure for estimating and settling rents where both agricultural and non agricultural lands are concerned.

Clause 6 relates to the publication of assessment roll and confirmation of the same after hearing representations in regard to entries therein.

Clause 7 deals with the effect of the estimate of rent on the tenants in temporarily settled estates. It provides that such rents together with the rents settled under the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885 shall be deemed to be the assets of the estate for the purpose of assessing land revenue.

Clause 8 lays down that the rents specified in the assessment roll shall not be binding on any of the tenants in an estate so long as the same is let in farm by the Revenue authorities.

Clause 9 provides for the realisation of sums not exceeding the amount of rent specified in the assessment roll for a tenant of the highest degree from any tenant of that degree when the estate is held khas by the Revenue authorities. Such sums are deemed to be compensation for the use and occupation of the land. It also provides for the realisation of compensation from under tenants if the tenant of the highest degree surrenders his tenancy or gives up possession thereof or is ejected therefrom or does not agree to pay the compensation.

Clause 10 provides that the rents specified in the assessment roll in respect of an estate which belongs to the Government shall be binding on the tenants of the highest degree and it also provides that such rents can be realised from under tenants if the tenant of the highest degree surrenders his tenancy or gives up possession thereof or is ejected therefrom or does not agree to pay the rent.

Clause 11 lays down the circumstances in which a tenant of the highest degree or a tenant who is deemed to be a direct tenant of the Government may appeal to the Commissioner or the Board of Revenue.

Clause 13 makes special provision for suits by a tenant who is aggrieved by an entry in assessment roll.

Clause 16 annuls in certain cases incumbrances on a tenancy sold as a result of non payment of compensation or rent.

Clause 17 makes provision for application to set aside a sale by an under tenant or a person having an incumbrance on the tenancy.

12 Except as provided in rule 13 of this Chapter, no memorandum of appeal, no memorandum of objection under Order XLI, rule 22 or 26, Civil Procedure Code, no application for review, and no application for leave to appeal in formâ pauperis shall be presented for admission unless the same bears an office report as to limitation of time, and, when a stamp is required, as to the sufficiency or otherwise of the stamp, or, in the case of a stamp of which the sufficiency cannot be ascertained, that the report as to the sufficiency of the stamp will be made on the receipt of the record or after further enquiry. Such report shall ordinarily be endorsed on the memorandum or application and returned by the Stamp Reporter before 4 p.m. on the day on which such memorandum or application was made over to the Stamp Reporter for examination

In cases in which it may not be possible for the Stamp Reporter to return the memorandum of appeal or application on the day on which such memorandum or application was made over to him for examination, the time taken by the Stamp Reporter in preparing his report shall be excluded from the prescribed period of limitation

Provided that if the Stamp Reporter on examination certifies that the memorandum or application is not barred by limitation, is sufficiently stamped and complies with the provisions of these Rules, the date on which such memorandum or application was made over to the Stamp Reporter for examination shall be deemed to be the date of presentation to the Deputy Registrar or such other officer as the Registrar may appoint under rule 14 of this Chapter

13 On the first day on which the High Court re-opens after the annual long vacation a memorandum of appeal or objection under Order XLI, rule 22 or 26, may be presented to the Deputy Registrar or such other officer as the Registrar may appoint for the purpose, and an application for leave to appeal in formâ pauperis may be presented to the Division Court, without the office report, as required by the preceding rule.

Provided that all memoranda of appeal or objection as aforesaid which are presented for admission on the re-opening date after the High Court's annual vacation shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of rule 18 of this Chapter, after the Stamp Reporter has recorded his report

14 Every memorandum of appeal (other than a memorandum of appeal from an Appellate Decree filed by a party to the appeal in person) or memorandum of objection under Order XLI, rule 22 or 26, Civil Procedure Code, shall be presented in the High Court to the Deputy Registrar or such other officer as the Registrar may appoint for the purpose by the appellant in person, or by his recognised agent, or by an Advocate appointed under the provisions of Order III rule 4, Civil Procedure Code, or by some person appointed in writing by such advocate to present the same

Provided that any such memorandum, which bears a report of the Stamp Reporter to the effect that the prescribed period of limitation has expired, shall be presented direct to the Division Court

15 Applications for review and memoranda of Appeals from Appellate Decrees or from Original or Appellate Orders filed by parties to the appeal in person shall be presented direct to the Division Court concerned after the report prescribed in rule 12 above has been obtained

Applications for revision shall be presented direct to the Division Court without the report prescribed in rule 12, but such applications shall exhibit the particulars required by Rule 2 of chapter IV of these Rules

16 Applications for leave to appeal in forma pauperis shall be presented with the report of the Stamp Reporter in open Court to the Division Court concerned in accordance with the provisions of Order XLIV, Civil Procedure Code

17 The officer to whom a memorandum is presented under rule 15 of this Chapter shall endorse on every such memorandum the date of presentation and shall send the same to the Stamp Reporter who, if the memorandum is not barred by limitation, is sufficiently stamped, and complies with the provisions of these rules, shall—

- (a) in the case of an Appeal from an Original Decree, admit it and cause it to be registered and that notice should issue to the respondent,
- (b) in the case of an Appeal from an Appellate Decree, or an Appeal from an order, admit it, cause it to be registered, and posted to a Bench for hearing under Order XLI, rule 11, Civil Procedure Code, and
- (c) in the case of a memorandum of objection under Order XLI, rule 22 or 26, Civil Procedure Code, admit it, and cause it to be registered

Provided that the memoranda of appeal or objection to be dealt with by the Stamp Reporter under this rule shall first be submitted for the scrutiny of the Deputy Registrar as to the sufficiency of the court-fees paid and as to whether the stamps have been properly punched and defaced under the rules

18 (1) If there is a reasonable doubt as to the amount of court-fee leviable on any memorandum of appeal which an Advocate or a party desires to present, he shall apply to the Registrar as Taxing Officer, for his decision as to the court-fee payable, and the Registrar shall pass an order accordingly and fix a period within which the requisite court-fee must be paid.

If the requisite fee is not paid within the period fixed, the case shall be laid before the Division Court for orders

(2) If the Stamp Reporter, on a memorandum being presented to him finds that it has been insufficiently stamped, he shall make a note thereon as regards the deficiency and shall return it, with as little delay as possible, to the Advocate or the party presenting it. If the Advocate or the party refiles it having supplied the deficit court-fees, within the prescribed period of limitation, the Stamp Reporter shall record a note to that effect on the memorandum which shall then be admitted

(3) The Advocate or the party to whom a memorandum is returned under clause (2) may apply to the Registrar for time to put in the requisite court-fee. On such application being made the Registrar, if he is satisfied that the insufficiency of the court-fee was due to a mistake on the part of the applicant as to the court-fee payable, may fix a period within which the additional court-fee must be paid. In other cases or when the requisite fee is not paid within the period fixed, the Registrar shall lay the matter before the Division Court for orders.

(4) If a memorandum which has been returned under clause (2) and for filing which no time under clause (3) has been fixed is refiled, sufficiently stamped, after the period of limitation has expired, it shall be presented direct to the Registrar and the latter may pass an order for the admission thereof or lay it before the Division Court for orders according as, in his opinion, a case as to mistake as referred to in clause (3) has been made out or not.

(5) An application made under clause (3) or a memorandum of appeal refiled under clause (4) must be accompanied by an affidavit explaining the insufficiency, unless the insufficiency is due to a mistake which is apparent on the face of the papers filed.

19 The Stamp Reporter or the Bench Clerks, as the case may be, must see that section 30 of the Court-fees Act is strictly complied with and that no document requiring any court-fee stamp is filed or acted upon in any proceeding either before the Court or in its offices, until the stamp has been effectively cancelled.

20 In any case in which a memorandum has been returned for amendment under the orders of the Registrar, it shall be the duty of the Deputy Registrar to attest the amendment by his signature.

21 If a memorandum bears a note that a report as to the sufficiency of the stamp will be made on the receipt of the record, the Deputy Registrar or such other officer as the Registrar may appoint shall note thereon the date of presentation and shall retain it pending the receipt of the report.

22 Every memorandum retained under the provisions of rule 21 shall, immediately after the receipt of the record, be examined by the Stamp Reporter, who shall endorse on it his report as to the sufficiency of the stamp and shall thereupon proceed in the manner provided in rules 17 and 18 above.

23 Whenever the Stamp Reporter finds that a document which ought to bear a stamp under the Court-fees Act, 1870, has been through mistake or inadvertence received, filed or used in the Court without being properly stamped, he shall report the fact to the Advocate who presented such document. Such Advocate shall at once initial the report and shall within one week thereafter, or within such further time as the Taxing Officer may allow, note on it whether he accepts or disputes the accuracy thereof. If such note is not made within such time, it shall not be open to such Advocate to dispute the accuracy of the report.

NOTE—The Honourable the Chief Justice has been pleased to declare that the Registrar of the High Court, in its Appellate Jurisdiction, shall be the Taxing Officer within the meaning of section 5 of the Court-fees Act, VII of 1870 of the Court in its Appellate Jurisdiction.

24. If a memorandum which has been dealt with under rule 18 above is duly stamped or amended under rule 20 within the time fixed by the Registrar or the Court, as the case may be, the Registrar or the Court shall admit it and cause it to be registered. If such memorandum is not duly stamped or amended within the time allowed, the Court may reject such memorandum or pass such other order relating thereto which it may consider proper.

25. An application supported by an affidavit shall be filed for an order for amendment of the memorandum of an appeal consequent on the death of a party including a party whose heirs are already on the record.

Provided that where such amendment relates to a matter in respect of which an order has already been obtained in the court below but has not been incorporated in the decree of that court, no application shall be necessary but an affidavit setting out the particulars will be sufficient.

26. If a respondent who was described as a minor in the decree to be appealed from has attained majority before the appeal is preferred, and the appellant impleads him as a major in the memorandum of appeal, the same shall be accompanied by an affidavit stating the said fact.

27. Where the Deputy Registrar is appointed guardian ad-litem of minor respondents under Order XXXII, rule 4(4), Civil Procedure Code, the appellant, at whose instance such appointment is made, shall within 15 days, deposit with the Accountant of the Court the sum of Rs 51 or Rs 19, as the case may be, as cost to enable the Deputy Registrar to appoint an Advocate on his behalf, and shall within the same time file in Court an indemnity bond in favour of the Deputy Registrar.

28 If a respondent, who was described as a minor in the memorandum of appeal, appears as a major he shall, when making such appearance, file an affidavit stating the fact that he has attained majority together with the date when he did so. On such affidavit being filed, the appellant, unless he disputes the fact of the respondent attaining majority, shall file an application, which need not be verified, for amending the memorandum of appeal, and thereupon the memorandum of appeal shall be amended accordingly. If no such affidavit is filed by such respondent, he shall be precluded from appearing as a major and the appellant shall be required to put in the costs, etc., for the appointment of the Deputy Registrar as guardian ad litem of the said respondent.

Provided that it shall always be open to the appellant to ask for such amendment on making an application supported by an affidavit for the purpose.

29 Where in an appeal or other proceeding the natural guardian of a minor respondent or opposite party, upon being duly served with notice, does not appear in due time and the Deputy Registrar is appointed guardian ad litem, the natural guardian shall not be allowed to appear unless he files an application supported by an affidavit making out sufficient ground for the removal of the Deputy Registrar as required by rule 11 of Order XXXII of the Civil Procedure Code. Notice of such application shall be duly served by the applicant upon the Deputy Registrar and if an order is made removing the Deputy Registrar it shall be made subject to the payment by the natural guardian of any cost that the Deputy Registrar may have incurred as guardian ad litem in respect of Advocates' fees, etc.

30 On any Court day on which no Bench is or has been sitting, any memorandum of appeal or application which might be barred by time, and which is entertainable only by a Bench, may be presented to the Deputy Registrar or, in his absence from Court on that day, to an Assistant Registrar on the Appellate Side of the Court, who shall certify thereon that such application was on that day presented to him provided always that no such presentation to the Deputy Registrar or an Assistant Registrar shall be of any effect unless such application be presented to a Bench on the next subsequent day on which a Bench is sitting.

31 When an Appeal from an Original Decree or an application for revision has been admitted and registered, or, in the case of Appeals from Appellate Decrees and Appeals from Orders, when the Court has passed an order to the effect that the appeal will be heard, it shall be the duty of the Deputy Registrar to send a notice [see Forms Nos 1 and 2 (Civil) of Appendix I] immediately to the Court from whose decision the appeal is preferred, or the application is made and to call for the transmission, ordinarily within seven days, of the record and all material papers

Provided that in every appeal from an interlocutory order made in a suit and coming under Order XLIII, rule 1, clauses (q), (r) and (s), Civil Procedure Code, copies only of the plaint, written statement (if any), order-sheet and the papers directly relating to the interlocutory proceedings in appeal shall be called for unless the Court or the Registrar otherwise directs

NOTE—Records of execution cases sent up in appeal to the High Court shall invariably be accompanied by all the papers connected with them in the Lower Courts, whether Original or Appellate, including the decree which is the subject of the execution proceedings

32 Whenever it shall be impossible for the Lower Court to comply with the requisition within the time stated such court shall report the reason of its inability and shall ask for such further time as may be necessary

33 The fee for the issue of the notice to the respondent under Order XLI, rule 14, Civil Procedure Code, shall be paid into Court by the appellant —

(a) in the case of Appeals from Original Decrees within two weeks of the date of registration of the appeals, notice whereof shall be given in the manner prescribed for Appeals from Appellate Decrees in Rule 59, Chapter IX,

(b) in the case of Appeals from Appellate Decrees and Appeals from Orders, other than those which are dismissed at the preliminary hearing under Order XLI, rule 11, Civil Procedure Code, within 30 days of the date on which the Court passes an order admitting the appeal

34 (1) The appellant within thirty days from the registration of the memorandum of appeal, notice whereof

shall be given in the manner stated in Rule 33(a) above, shall, in the case of Appeals from Original Decrees, deposit with the Accountant, in one instalment, the sum of Rs 50 if the appeal does not exceed Rs 10,000 in value, Rs 75, if such appeal exceeds Rs 10,000 in value but does not exceed Rs 15,000, and Rs 100 if such appeal exceeds Rs 15,000 in value

(2) (a) In the case of Appeals from Appellate Decrees and Appeals from Remand Orders under Order XII, Rule 23, Civil Procedure Code, in which the valuation of the appeal exceeds Rs 50, and Appeals under Chapter X of the Bengal Tenancy Act, the appellant shall, within 30 days from the date of registration of an appeal, deposit, in one instalment, the sum of Rs 10 and the respondent, at the time of entering appearance, Rs 5 in full payment of the costs of the preparation of a typewritten paper-book

Provided that in an Appeal from Appellate Decree in which there was an order of remand passed by the lower appellate court, and in which the previous judgments (of both original and appellate courts) will have to be included in the paper-book, the charge of the paper-book to the appellant will be Rs 12, instead of Rs 10, and to the respondent Rs 6, instead of Rs 5

NOTE.—In cases where respondents are represented by separate Advocates each such set of respondents shall deposit the sum of Rs 5 on entering appearance in full payment of the cost of the preparation of a typewritten paper book

(b) In the case of analogous appeals of the classes mentioned in clause (a) above, the appellant shall, within 30 days from the date of registration of an appeal, deposit, in full payment of the costs of the preparation of a typewritten paper-book, the sum of Rs 10 for the first appeal, the charge for the analogous appeals being Re 1-8 per appeal up to four such appeals, and annas 12 for every such appeal in excess of four, the additional charge not exceeding Rs 10 in any case

In such cases, the respondent, on entering appearance, shall deposit Rs 5 for the first appeal and half the charges prescribed for the appellant in respect of the analogous appeals, the additional charge not exceeding Rs 5 in any case. The principle of this rule will apply to each set of respondents who enter appearance through separate Advocates

(c) Where analogous appeals have been presented in separate batches, each batch of such appeals presented by the same appellant or by the same Advocate representing different appellants, shall be considered as a separate batch of analogous appeals and the cost of the preparation of the typewritten paper-book shall be deposited for each batch of such appeals separately calculated according to the provisions of clause (b). In the case of single appeals presented by different Advocates or appellants in person, such costs shall be deposited as provided in clause (a) for each such separate appeal, notwithstanding that such appeals may be analogous to others

NOTE—In cases in which some of the analogous appeals exceed Rs 50 in value and some do not the principle of the rules applicable to appeals valued over Rs 50 shall apply to the whole analogous batch

(3) In the case of First Appeals from Orders passed by a Provincial Civil Court (including orders under section 47, Civil Procedure Code) the appellant shall, at the time of paying the fee for the issue of the notice to the respondent under Order XLI, Rule 14, Civil Procedure Code, deposit the sum of Rs 30 towards the cost of the preparation of the paper-book in the Appeal

NOTE—When tendering money in the accounts section the Advocate shall certify that the amount tendered is the full amount of initial deposit after reduction or otherwise, and the money shall not be received if this certificate is not given

35 (1) Whenever it is necessary under these Rules to issue a notice to a respondent under Order XLI, rule 14, Civil Procedure Code, the appellant shall, simultaneously with the filing of the fee for the issue of such notice, file printed forms of such notices, duly filled up in the prescribed form No 3 (Civil) of Appendix I, the date of appearance and the date of the notice being left blank

(2) The information entered in the forms must be filled up in the vernacular (or in English if the respondent to be served is a European British subject or a resident of Calcutta) in a bold, clear and easily legible handwriting

(3) The date fixed for appearance will be inserted in the form and the notice will be dated and signed by an Officer of the High Court

(4) The necessary number of the printed forms of notice in the prescribed form will be supplied to the appellants, or their Advocates, free of cost on application to the Forms Clerk

(5) The Registrar may, in his discretion, direct in any particular case that the forms of notice be entirely filled up in the office of the Court

36(a) If the fee for the issue of the notice to the respondent be not paid into Court in the manner provided by rule 33, or the deposit required under rule 34 be not made within the time allowed by that rule, or if the notice forms, duly filled up, be not filed as provided in the last preceding rule, the appeal shall be placed before the Registrar who may, in his discretion, either grant further time for making such payment, or deposit, or filing the notice forms, or direct the appeal to be placed before the Court for orders

(b) No process-fee for the issue of notice to the respondent, or deposit under rule 34, or notice form filled up in accordance with the provisions of rule 35, shall, except under the orders of the Registrar, be accepted after the expiry of the period allowed by these Rules

No order shall be passed under this rule except upon an application duly stamped with a court-fee of Rs 2 setting forth sufficient grounds for the delay. Provided that if it is deemed necessary orders may be passed directing an affidavit to be filed in support of the application for extension of time.

NOTE—In case any affidavit to be used under this Rule is sent from Mufasal, and is in the vernacular it shall be accompanied by an English translation certified to be correct by an Advocate or a Translator of this Court

Provided, further, that if the fees referred to in these Rules be paid into court out of time, but before the case is listed in Lawazima before the Registrar, the filing of an Application may be dispensed with

37 If the process-fee be paid and the notice forms be filed within the period prescribed by rules 33 and 35, or within the further period allowed by the Registrar, the notice in the prescribed form shall at once issue on the respondent

38 If such respondent reside within the jurisdiction of the Court from whose decree or order the appeal is preferred, the notice to such respondent shall be sent to the presiding officer of such Court together with the proceeding of the High Court calling for the record

39 Notice for service on respondents or opposite parties residing in any district other than that from which the appeal, application, etc., comes, shall be sent by the Deputy Registrar to the proper Court in the district in which such notice is to be served. If, however, the opposite party, or any of the parties to be served, resides in the same district but outside the jurisdiction of the Court from which the appeal, application, etc., comes, the notice shall be sent for service to the Court within whose jurisdiction the party resides, if known, if not known, then to the Court from which the appeal or application comes, directing the latter to forward it to the proper Court within the jurisdiction of which the notice is to be served. The Court which serves any notice shall in every case make its return of service, or of the failure of service (as the case may be), direct to the High Court.

40 On receipt of the proceedings of the High Court, transmitting the notices of appeal or application, the Lower Court shall cause their service without the payment of any further fee and without any further action by the Appellant. Provided that —(1) any additional fees for boat-hire or ferry toll exigible under rule 4 of the Rules framed under clause (i) of section 20 of the Court-fees Act, VII of 1870 [see Chapter 12 of these Rules] shall be deposited by the appellant or applicant in the Court of service, (2) the appellant or applicant or some one employed by him may, in any particular case if he so desires, accompany the serving officer for the purpose of facilitating the service of the processes.

41 The time allowed for service of the notice shall be specified therein by the Deputy Registrar in accordance with the time-table in rule 46 and shall commence from the date on which it is despatched, which shall, in general, be the day on which the process-fee is deposited and the notice forms are filed.

42 The Lower Courts shall issue all notices immediately on receipt thereof and in their returns of service shall, in every instance, insert (a) date of receipt of notice, (b) date of delivery to the serving officer, and (c) date of receiving it back from him.

43 It shall be the duty of the Lower Court to cause the notice to be served in sufficient time before the date fixed, and, if such service be impracticable, to state, when returning it to the High Court, the reasons thereof. The Lower Court shall satisfy itself that a valid service has been made, or that there has been a failure of service, and shall certify such opinion with the reasons in case of failure of service. The certificate shall be accompanied by the return of service, or of failure to serve the notice, and the declaration of the serving officer specifying the fact and mode of service or the reason for non-service.

NOTE—In every case in which a report is received from the Lower Court to the effect that a process issued by this Court cannot be served on the party for want of the necessary boat hire it shall be the duty of the office to bring such report to the notice of the Registrar who if necessary after hearing the Advocate engaged in the case, may fix a date within which the necessary boat hire shall be deposited in the Lower Court and at the same time alter the date of hearing of the case and also extend the date within which the return of service should be submitted. Intimation to this effect shall then be sent to the Lower Court concerned by means of a service post card in the prescribed form [see Form No. 4 (Civil) of Appendix I] and the Advocate concerned shall also be informed.

44 The date to be fixed for the hearing of the appeal shall be the 21st day after the date on which the time for the service of notices expires, provided that if such day be a Sunday or holiday the first open day next following shall be the date fixed for the hearing.

45 In an appeal in which more than one respondent is to be served with the notice under Order XLI, rule 14, Civil Procedure Code, the Deputy Registrar, in fixing the time for the hearing of the appeal, shall fix the 21st day after the day fixed for the service of the notice of appeal on the respondent for whom the longest period is allowed under the following rule.

minor, a person of unsound mind, or other disqualified person, it shall also be issued to the guardian or next friend of such person

48 In every case in which an appeal has been admitted, the Registrar shall cause paper-books to be prepared in accordance with the provisions of Chapter IX

49 As soon as the paper-book has been prepared in accordance with the provisions of Chapter IX, and the appeal is otherwise ready for hearing, it shall be entered in the General List and notice thereof shall be published in the manner prescribed in Rule 66 of Chapter IX of these Rules

Provided that, unless there is a special order to the contrary, no appeal shall be entered in the Weekly Cause List until the expiry of seven days from its entry in the General Cause List of Appeals ready for hearing

50 The Deputy Registrar shall, on Saturday of each week, cause to be prepared and posted on the Notice Board of the Court a list of cases which are ready for hearing during the week. This list shall be called "The Weekly Cause List"

51 From the Weekly Cause List the Deputy Registrar, subject to any special orders passed by the Judges or by the Registrar under rule 57 of this Chapter, shall each day cause to be prepared and posted on the Notice Board of the Court a list of the cases to be taken up by each Bench on the following day. This list shall be called "The Daily Cause List," and a copy of it shall be submitted to each Judge

52 The Daily Cause List for the days on which the Registrar sits shall include a list of the cases which will be taken up by him

53 If on the date fixed for the hearing of any appeal, application or other matter, it appears that the requisite notices have been served, and the matter is otherwise ready for hearing, the matter may be disposed of, if not disposed of, it shall come on for disposal in the ordinary course, and no notice of any date fixed for hearing shall be given other than its inclusion in the Daily Cause List

54 A case which is part-heard shall, unless otherwise ordered by a Bench be placed first in the Daily Cause List for the day on which the Bench which has partly heard such case next sits for the disposal of that class of business

55 Subject to rule 54, a case which is specially fixed for a particular day before a particular Bench shall be placed at the head of the list for that day

56 The cases in the Daily Cause List shall, unless the Bench otherwise directs, be called on and disposed of in their order on the list

57 Any person desiring that a case shall not be placed in the Daily Cause List for any particular day or days may, after notice to the opposite party, apply to the Registrar, and thereupon the Registrar may, subject to the proviso to rule 2(20), Chapter II order that such case shall not be placed in the Daily Cause List for any such day or days

58 Appeals from Orders shall have precedence over other appeals in preparation for hearing and shall, when ready, be put up for hearing as soon as possible

59 When an order has been made under Order XLI, rule 23 or 25, Civil Procedure Code the Deputy Registrar shall make a note of the same in a register to be kept for the purpose, and he shall bring to the notice of the Registrar any case in which the Subordinate Court has not made a return to the order of remand within four months, or within such time as may have been specially ordered

60 On receipt of the finding of a Lower Court in a case referred under Order XLI rule 25, Civil Procedure Code, the Deputy Registrar shall notify to the Advocates of the parties that any objections to such finding must be filed within one week from the date of the service of the notice

61 Whenever by an order of a Division Court, the decree or order of a Lower Court is modified or reversed, or costs are fixed in any special sum not specified in the judgment, as soon as the decree or order has been drawn up, it will be the duty of the Bench Clerk concerned to cause a notice to be issued to the Advocates concerned or to the parties, if acting in person, stating that such decree or order has been drawn up and that it may be perused by any party or his Advocate within one week from the date of the issue of the notice

62 When such notice has been issued, any party or his Advocate may, before the expiry of the time prescribed in rule 61, peruse the decree and either sign it or state his objection to the Judge or Judges, or one of them who delivered the judgment, or if such Judge or Judges has or have ceased to be a Judge or Judges of the Court, or be absent on leave or furlough, then before such Judge or Judges as the Chief Justice may appoint for that purpose

63 (1) Should no objection be filed on or before the date specified in the notice, the Bench Clerk shall submit the decree to the Judges for signature

(2) In drawing up decrees of this Court dismissing with costs appeals by minors the Bench Clerks should be careful to make the next friend of the minor liable for such costs unless the Court otherwise orders

(3) In cases where a minor is a respondent and the decree of the Court below is reversed or altered it shall be the duty of the Bench Clerk to call the attention of the Division Court to that fact, in order that special directions may be given as to the payment of costs

64 A copy of the judgment and of the decree passed by the High Court, disposing of an appeal shall be certified by the Deputy Registrar and forwarded by him to the Court which passed the decree appealed from in the manner prescribed by Order XLI rule 37, Civil Procedure Code

65 Every decree and order made by the High Court shall be drawn up in the English language

67 No Advocate shall receive instructions from any person other than an Advocate an Attorney an enrolled Mukhtar of the Court, or the party himself, or a person holding a general power-of-attorney from him, or his servant or relation, or a Pleader of the mufassal Court, specially authorised in writing in that behalf Where there are more parties than one, and they appear by separate vakalatnamas, the vakalatnama of one may be received from any other similarly authorised, but if they appear by one and the same vakalatnama, it may be received from any one of them, or from a person duly authorised by any one of them, without special authority from the others. When any vakalatnama is filed by an Advocate, he shall endorse on the back of it the name of the person from whom it is received, and if such person is not the client himself, or an Advocate, Attorney, or enrolled Mukhtar, shall state the nature of the authority, with date, of that person.

68 When an Advocate retained to appear for any party to an appeal is prevented by sickness or engagement in another Court, or for any other sufficient cause, from appearing and conducting the case of his client, he may appoint another Advocate to appear in his place so that his client may not be unrepresented at the hearing but such Advocate shall not so appear unless he shall have first obtained the special permission of the Division Court, or the Registrar, as the case may be.

69 In any case in which the party employing an Advocate, or his agent, after due notice fails to pay the amount of the estimated costs for preparing briefs necessary to enable the Advocate to conduct the case properly the Advocate or Advocates, after notice to such party or his agent, or by leave of the Court, may withdraw from the case.

70 An Advocate may also, for any other sufficient cause, or after such notice to his client as may enable him to appoint another Advocate by leave of the Court, but not otherwise, and on such terms as the Court may order as to refunding any fees he may have received, withdraw from the further conduct of the case.

71 A party desiring to cancel a Vakalatnama filed by him in any appeal or other proceeding in this Court must file a duly stamped and verified application for the orders of the Court unless the Advocate who accepted the Vakalatnama signifies his willingness to retire from the case, in which case the application need not be verified.

72 The Deputy Registrar shall endorse the date of receipt on all Vakalatnamas and Mukhtarnamas in all cases in the High Court in its Appellate Jurisdiction.

73 The Deputy Registrar shall bring to the notice of the Registrar any wilful neglect on the part of any Advocate or Mukhtar attached to the High Court to attend at his office

74 In every civil matter in which the Court directs an order to be issued immediately, the Bench Clerk shall at once draw up the order in the prescribed form [see Form No 5 (Civil) of Appendix I] and after obtaining the signature of the Judges thereto, send it forthwith to the Deputy Registrar or the officer in charge of the Judicial Department as the case may be, for issue without waiting for the formal order or the judgment to be signed. The Deputy Registrar or the Officer in charge of the Judicial Department shall issue the order upon payment of such fee as may be chargeable

Provided that if it is not possible to obtain the signature or signatures of the Judge or Judges on the day on which the order is passed, the matter should be brought immediately to the notice of the Registrar. If one Judge of a Bench has signed the order, the substance of it shall be communicated to the Lower Court, immediately, with a note that the copy of the order proper will follow

75 The Stamp Reporter shall bring to the notice of the Deputy Registrar any irregularity committed by the Lower Courts in the preparation and endorsement of certified copies of the decrees of their Courts, and the Deputy Registrar shall submit his report of such irregularity to the Registrar

CHAPTER VI.

Appeals to the Privy Council.

1 The provisions of Chapter IV shall apply, so far as may be, to petitions under Order XLV, rule 2, Civil Procedure Code

2 Matters connected with appeals to His Majesty in Council, other than those with which the Registrar is authorised to deal, shall ordinarily be heard at such time as the Division Court appointed to deal with such matters shall fix

3 Matters relating to (1) service of notices or other processes, (2) substitution of parties and appointment or discharge of next friends or guardians ad litem of minors or persons of unsound mind, before the admission of an appeal, (3) preparation of paper-books, (4) return of documents and (5) matters not expressly required to be laid before the Division Court for orders, shall be dealt with and disposed of by the Registrar

4 Applications for an order (1) to transmit Orders in Council for execution to the lower courts, where no special directions are required, (2) to transmit securities to the mufassal courts for investigation as to their sufficiency, and (3) for refunds of surplus deposits made for the purpose of preparing translations, manuscripts, etc., may in ordinary circumstances, be made to, and disposed of, by the Registrar without notice to the opposite party other than inclusion in the daily cause list

5 In all other applications regarding matters connected with appeals to His Majesty in Council, including petitions for leave to appeal notice under rule 6 of this chapter is necessary, in addition to any other notice herein prescribed

6 Notice of an application under the preceding rule shall be given by the applicant or his advocate by delivering to the proper person (ordinarily the advocate for the appearing opposite party) a copy of the petition, together with a notice, in the following form —

“Take notice that this application will be filed with the proper officer of the Court, and that you are required to attend and show cause against the application at the hearing, if you desire to do so ”

7 All applications which have been duly filed with the clerk-in-charge of Privy Council Appeals will be set down in a list in the order in which they are notified to him. The cases in the list will be called on peremptorily in their turn and if, by the fault of the applicant, the application cannot be proceeded with, it will be liable to be dismissed

8 Every petition under Order XLV, rule 2, Civil Procedure Code, shall be presented to the Stamp Reporter. Such petition shall be accompanied by—

- (1) a court fee of Rs. 16 for drawing up an estimate of the expense of preparing and forwarding to the Registrar of the Privy Council the record of the case,

- (3) forms of notices to all respondents duly filled up in the manner prescribed in rule 15, and
- (4) certified copies of the judgment and decree complained of

NOTE —A petition presented without a copy of the decree appealed from shall forthwith be returned to the Advocate or party presenting it who shall refile it with the copy wanted within the period of limitation, and in case it is refiled after the period of limitation it shall not be accepted without an order of the Division Court

9 If the Stamp Reporter finds that the petition is barred by limitation he shall forthwith lay the same before the Court for orders. If it is filed within the prescribed period of limitation he shall lay it before the Registrar with a report whether it has been filed in accordance with the rules of the High Court and whether the stamps filed therewith are sufficient

10 Upon receipt of such petition with the Stamp Reporter's report, the Registrar shall, in case the petition is not in proper form or is not accompanied by the requisite court-fee stamps, fix a period within which the additional fees may be paid or within which the petition may be amended, or lay the same before the Court for orders. If such petition is sufficiently stamped and complies with the provisions of the rules, he shall, upon receipt of such petition, direct notice to be served on the opposite party to show cause why the certificate should not be granted.

11 Where more than one such application is made by the same party at the same time relating to decrees or final orders made in pursuance of the same judgment and only one record is required to be printed, the Registrar may order that only one court-fee of Rs 16 be paid, or that one certified copy of the judgment be accepted, or may refer the matter to the Court for orders.

12 As soon as the Registrar has directed notice to be served under rule 10 of this chapter, the clerk-in-charge of Privy Council Appeals shall forthwith proceed to issue notice of the application for leave to appeal to all the respondents who did not appear at the hearing of the appeal before the High Court. He shall also serve notices of the application for leave to appeal on the advocates for the respondents who appeared at the hearing before the High Court.

13 A notice which it is necessary to serve under these rules (other than notices under rule 6 of this chapter) or under Order XLV, rule 3 or rule 8, Civil Procedure Code, may be served in the manner provided by the Code for the service of notices, or, unless the Court or the Registrar otherwise directs, upon any advocate who appeared for the party to whom notice is to be given in the appeal to this Court, unless the vakalatnama of such advocate has been cancelled with the sanction of the Court. If there is no advocate upon whom notice can be served, then, unless the Registrar shall otherwise direct, the notice must be served upon the party in Calcutta through the Sheriff, or in the mufassal through the proper court in the district in which such notice is to be served, on paying the usual fee. The fee for the issue of the notice must be paid into Court at the time of filing the application. Such payment is to be made by stamp affixed to the notice intended to be served.

14 NOTHING in these rules requiring any notice to be served on, or given to, an opposite party or respondent shall be deemed to require any notice to be served on, or given to, the legal representative of any deceased opposite party or deceased respondent in a case where such opposite party or respondent did not appear either at the hearing in the High Court or at any proceedings subsequent to the decree of the High Court

Provided that notices under sub-rule 2 of rule 3 and rule 8 of Order XLV, Civil Procedure Code, shall be given by affixing the same in some conspicuous place in the court-house of the Judge of the district in which the original suit was brought and by publication in such newspapers as the Court may direct

Notices under the proviso to this rule may be issued in the manner prescribed to the legal representatives of the deceased respondent or opposite party in question without specifying such legal representative by name

15 (1) With the fee for the issue of the notice the applicant shall also file printed forms of such notice duly filled up in the prescribed form [see Form No 6 (Civil), Appendix I] the date of appearance and the date of the notice being left blank

(2) The information entered in the form must be filled up in the vernacular (or in English if the party to be served is a European British subject or a resident of Calcutta) in a bold, clear and easily legible hand-writing

(3) The date fixed for the hearing of an application will be inserted in the form and the notice will be dated by the clerk-in-charge of Privy Council Appeals, before it is signed by the Deputy Registrar

(4) The necessary number of printed forms of notice in the prescribed form will be supplied to applicants or their advocates, free of cost, on application to the Forms Clerk

(5) The Registrar may, in his discretion, direct in any particular case that the forms of notice be entirely filled up in the office of the Court

16 The date fixed for the hearing of the application shall be regulated by the time-table prescribed in rule 46, chapter V

17 As soon as it shall appear that the notices of the application for leave to appeal have been duly served on all the respondents, the clerk-in-charge of Privy Council Appeals shall lay the application for leave to appeal before the Division Court for orders under Order XLV, rule 3 (1), Civil Procedure Code

18 On the receipt of a report from the court of first instance under Order XLV, rule 5, Civil Procedure Code as to the amount or value of the subject-matter of the suit and of the proposed appeal, notice shall forthwith be given to the applicant and to the appearing respondents, and any party objecting to the report shall, within seven days from the date of the notice file his objections, if any, and also serve a copy thereof on the other side. The case shall thereupon be laid before the Court for orders without delay

19 Immediately after the grant of the certificate, the clerk-in-charge shall call for the transmission ordinarily within seven days, of the record and all material papers

20 The advocates for the parties shall be notified of the arrival of such record as soon as it is received in the office of the Court

21 Whenever it shall be impossible for the lower court to comply with the requisition within the time stated, such Court shall report the reason of its inability and shall ask for such further time as may be necessary

22 (1) Immediately after the grant of a certificate for leave to appeal, the clerk-in-charge shall prepare and serve on the applicant an estimate with reference to (a) Parts I and II of the paper-book used in the appeal to the High Court, and (b) the papers required to be added under rule 25, post, excluding item (7) of the latter rule. The amount due on such estimate shall be deposited within the time limited by Order XLV, rule 7 of the Code of Civil Procedure

(2) If the application is for leave to appeal from the judgment of the High Court in an appeal other than an appeal from an original decree or order, the applicant shall deposit a lump sum of Rs 400 within the time limited by Order XLV, rule 7, on account of the cost of the preparation of complete Parts I and II of the paper-book. The estimates in such cases will be prepared and served as soon as possible after the receipt of the records and the filing of lists by the parties, but the said deposit of Rs 400 shall be made within the prescribed time irrespective of the service of estimates.

23 (1) If the appellant desires to include in Parts I or II of the paper-book used at the hearing of the appeal in the High Court any papers on which the decision of the appeal to the Privy Council depends, and which have not already been included in the paper-book, or to exclude therefrom any papers on the ground that they are irrelevant to the subject-matter of the appeal to the Privy Council, he shall within one week from the date of service upon him of the notice under rule 20, apply to the Registrar for an order accordingly, and file with his application a complete list of the papers to be included in, or excluded from, the printed paper-book, and he shall, at the same time, serve copies of his application and list on the appearing respondents.

(2) Within one week from the date of the receipt by them of copies of the application and list mentioned in clause (1), the appearing respondents shall, if they so desire, file a similar application and list and simultaneously serve copies thereof on the appellant.

(3) (a) In the case of applications for leave to appeal from the judgment of the High Court in an appeal other than an appeal from an original decree or order the appellant shall file a complete list of the papers which he wishes to include in Parts I and II of the paper-book with the clerk-in-charge within two weeks of the service of notice under rule 20, and shall simultaneously serve a copy thereof on the appearing respondents who shall thereupon prepare and file their lists with the clerk-in-charge within one week of the receipt of the appellant's list and simultaneously serve copies thereof on the appellant.

(b) If any party considers that any paper, or portion thereof, should be included in, or omitted from, the lists he may within one week from the receipt of a copy of the list of the other side, and after giving notice to the other side of his intended application, apply to the Registrar for an order that such paper, or portion thereof, should be inserted in the paper-book, or be omitted therefrom.

(4) It shall be competent to the Registrar to pass any orders which, with reference to the said applications, he may consider proper, and any costs incurred on this account shall be borne in such manner as the Registrar may direct. Provided that if the Registrar is unable to arrive at any conclusion as to whether a document should be included or not, and as to which party should bear the cost of inclusion of any document, he may make a note, which will form part of the paper-book, to that effect. Such applications shall bear a certificate under the hand of the advocate presenting them to the effect that the inclusion of the papers specified in their respective lists is necessary in order to the decision of the appeal, or that the papers are irrelevant and should be excluded from the printed record required for the Privy Council.

24 Parts I and II of the paper-book shall contain brief marginal notes, but shall otherwise be prepared in accordance with the provisions of Chapter IX of these Rules.

Each part shall have a complete index of all the papers included in it, and all the documents omitted from the transcript shall be enumerated in a type-written list to be transmitted with the record.

42 All applications by, or on behalf of an infant, or a person of unsound mind shall be made in the name of the infant or person of unsound mind by the person whose name is on the record as his next friend or guardian, and whenever any application is consented to or opposed by, an infant or person of unsound mind the infant or person of unsound mind shall in like manner be represented by the person who appears on the record as his next friend or guardian

44. The supplemental record dealing with substitution and representation of heirs of deceased parties shall be transmitted to England in manuscript instead of being printed

45. (a) When a party, who has been successful in an appeal to His Majesty in Council, applies for a certificate of the costs incurred in the appeal in this Court, the Deputy Registrar shall, upon production of the order of His Majesty in Council for the payment of such costs, prepare such certificate and place it on the record of the Privy Council Appeal

(b) A copy of the certificate will then be taken by the party in the usual way

46 The Registrar shall periodically, and at short intervals, place in the Court's list all appeals which are in arrears and call on the appellants to show cause before the Court why the appeals should not be dismissed for want of prosecution

APPENDIX I TO CHAPTER VI

AT THE COURT AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE, THE 9TH DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1920

Present

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the 4th year of the reign of Majesty King William IV, entitled "An Act for the better ministration of Justice in His Majesty's Privy Council," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council from time to time to make any such Rules and Orders as may be thought fit for regulating the mode, form and time of Appeal to be made from the decisions of any Courts of Judicature in India (from the decisions of which an Appeal lies to His Majesty in Council), and in like manner from time to time to make such other Regulations for the preventing delays in the making or hearing such Appeals and as to the expenses attending the said Appeals and as to the amount or value of property in respect of which any such Appeal may be made

AND WHEREAS Her Majesty Queen Victoria did by Her Order in Council of the 10th day of April, 1838, approve certain Rules and Orders for regulating the mode, form and time of Appeal from the decisions of the said Courts and also certain Regulations for the preventing delay in the making or hearing such Appeals and as to the expenses attending such Appeals and as to the amount or value of property in respect of which any such Appeal may be made

AND WHEREAS the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council hath deemed it expedient to rescind all the said Rules, Orders and Regulations and to substitute others in lieu thereof

His Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to rescind all the said Rules, Orders and Regulations in the said Order in Council of the 10th day of April, 1838, contained, and to approve of the several Rules, Orders and Regulations contained in the Schedule hereto, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the same be respectively observed by all Courts of Judicature in India and by all persons whom it shall or may concern

Whereof the Governor-General of India in Council, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly

ALMERIC FITZROY

The Schedule above referred to

1 Applications to the Court for leave to appeal to His Majesty in Council shall be made within 90 days of the Decree or Order to be appealed from, subject to the provisions of sections 4, 5 and 12 of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908

2 The preparation of the Record shall be subject to the supervision of the Court, and the parties may submit any disputed question arising in connection therewith to the decision of the Court, and the Court shall give such directions thereon as the justice of the case may require

3 The Registrar, as well as the parties and their legal Agents, shall endeavour to exclude from the Record all documents (more particularly such as are merely formal), that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the Appeal, and, generally, to reduce the bulk of the Record as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid the duplication of documents and the unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents, but the documents omitted to be copied or printed shall be enumerated in a manuscript list to be transmitted with the Record

4 Where in the course of the preparation of a Record one party objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is unnecessary or irrelevant, and the other party nevertheless insists upon its being included, and the Court allows the document to be included, the Record, as printed (whether in India or in England) shall, with a view to the subsequent adjustment of the costs of, and incidental to, such document, indicate in the index of papers or otherwise, the fact that, and the party by whom, the inclusion of the document was objected to

5 Where the Record is printed in India, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council 40 copies of such Record, one of which copies he shall certify to be correct by signing his name on, or initialling, every eighth page thereof and by affixing thereto the seal, if any, of the Court

6 Where the Record is to be printed in England, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council one certified copy of such Record, together with an index of all the papers and exhibits in the case. No other certified copies of the Record shall be transmitted to the Agents in England by, or on behalf of, the parties to the Appeal

7 Where there are two or more Appeals arising out of the same matter, and the Court is of opinion that it would be for the convenience of the Lords of the Judicial Committee and all parties concerned that the Appeals should be consolidated, the Court may direct the Appeals to be consolidated

8 An Appellant who has obtained a certificate for the admission of an Appeal may, at any time prior to the making of an Order admitting the Appeal, withdraw the Appeal on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the Court may direct

9 Where an Appellant, having obtained a certificate for the admission of an Appeal, fails to furnish the security or make the deposit required (or apply with due diligence to the Court for an Order admitting the Appeal), the Court may, on its own motion or on an application in that behalf made by the Respondent, cancel the certificate for the admission of the Appeal, and may gave such directions as to the cost of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant as the Court shall think fit, or make such further or other Order in the premises as, in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires

10 An Appellant whose appeal has been admitted shall prosecute his Appeal in accordance with the Rules for the time being regulating the general practice and procedure in Appeals to His Majesty in Council

11 Where an Appellant, whose Appeal has been admitted, desires, prior to the despatch of the Record to England, to withdraw his Appeal, the Court may, upon an application in that behalf made by the Appellant, grant him a certificate to the effect that the Appeal has been withdrawn, and the Appeal shall thereupon be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct

12 Where an Appellant, whose Appeal has been admitted, fails to show due diligence in taking all necessary steps in connection with the preparation of the Record, the Court may, either on its own motion or on the application of the Respondent, call upon the Appellant to show cause why a certificate should not be issued that the Appeal has not been effectually prosecuted by the Appellant, and if the Court sees fit to issue such a certificate, the Appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct

13 Where at any time between the admission of an Appeal and the despatch of the record to England, the Record becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court may, notwithstanding the admission of the Appeal, on an application in that behalf made by any person interested, grant a certificate showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted, or entered, on the Record, in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died, or undergone a change of status, and the name of such person shall thereupon be deemed to be so substituted or entered on the Record as aforesaid without express Order of His Majesty in Council. If, in the opinion of the Court, there has been undue delay in making this application, the Court may order the Appellant, or the party interested, to take all necessary steps to perfect the Record within such time as the Court may direct, and, if he fails to comply with such Order, the Court may call upon him to show cause why a certificate should not be issued that the Appeal has not been effectually prosecuted, and if the Court sees fit to issue such a certificate, the Appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

14 When the Record subsequently to its despatch to England becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court may, upon an application in that behalf made by any person interested, cause a certificate to be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council, showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted, or entered, on the Record, in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died, or undergone a change of status. If in the opinion of the Court, there has been undue delay in making this application, the Court may order the Appellant, or the party interested, to take all necessary steps to perfect the Record within such time as the Court may direct, and, if he fails to comply with such order, the Court shall report the matter to the Registrar of the Privy Council.

15 These Rules shall come into operation on the 1st day of January, 1921, or on such other date as the Governor-General of India in Council may determine.

Interpretation

- 1 (1) In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires —
- “Appeal” means an Appeal to His Majesty in Council,
 - “Judgment” includes decree, order, sentence, or decision of any Court, Judge, or Judicial Officer,
 - “Record” means the aggregate of records relating to an Appeal (including the pleadings, proceedings, evidence and judgments) proper to be laid before His Majesty in Council on the hearing of the Appeal,
 - “Registrar” means the Registrar or other proper officer having the custody of the records in the Court appealed from,
 - “Abroad” means the country or place where the Court appealed from is situate,

"Agent" means a person qualified by virtue of Her late Majesty's Order in Council of the 6th March 1896 to conduct proceedings before His Majesty in Council on behalf of another.

"Party" and all words descriptive of parties to proceedings before His Majesty in Council (such as "Petitioner," "Appellant," "Respondent") mean, in respect of all acts proper to be done by an Agent, the Agent of the Party in question where such party is represented by an Agent,

"Respondent" includes Intervener,

"Month" means calendar month,

Words in the singular shall include the plural, and words in the plural shall include the singular

(2) Where by these rules any step is required to be taken in England in connection with proceedings before His Majesty in Council whether in the way of lodging a Petition or other document, entering an Appearance, lodging security, or otherwise, such step shall be taken in the Registry of the Privy Council, Downing Street, London

Leave to Appeal

2 All Appeals shall be brought either in pursuance of leave obtained from the Court appealed from, or, in the absence of such leave, in pursuance of special leave to appeal granted by His Majesty in Council upon a Petition in that behalf presented by the intending Appellant

Special Leave to Appeal.

3 A Petition for special leave to appeal to His Majesty in Council shall state succinctly and clearly all such facts as it may be necessary to state in order to enable the Judicial Committee to advise His Majesty whether such leave ought to be granted, and shall be signed by the counsel who attends at the hearing or by the party himself if he appears in person. The petition shall deal with the merits of the case only so far as is necessary for the purpose of explaining and supporting the particular grounds upon which special leave to appeal is sought

4 The Petitioner shall lodge at least five copies of his Petition for special leave to appeal together with the Affidavit in support thereof prescribed by Rule 50 hereinafter contained, and unless a Caveat as prescribed by Rule 48 has been lodged by the other parties who appeared in the Court below, an Affidavit of service of notice of the intended application upon such parties or their Solicitors or Agents, either abroad or in England

5 A Petition for special leave to appeal may be lodged at any time after the date of the judgment sought to be appealed from, but the Petitioner shall, in every case, lodge his Petition with the least possible delay

6 Where the Judicial Committee agree to advise His Majesty to grant special leave to appeal, they shall, in their Report, specify the amount of the security for costs (if any) to be lodged by the Petitioner, and shall, unless the circumstances of a particular case render such a course unnecessary, provide for the transmission of the record by the Registrar to the Registrar of the Privy Council and for such further matters as the justice of the case may require. Unless otherwise ordered the security shall be lodged at any time before the Appellant enters an Appearance.

7 Save as by the four last preceding Rules otherwise provided, the provisions of Rules 47 to 50 and 52 to 59 (all inclusive) hereinafter contained shall apply mutatis mutandis to Petitions for special leave to appeal.

8 Rules 3 to 7 (both inclusive) shall apply mutatis mutandis to Petitions for leave to appeal in forma pauperis, but in addition to the Affidavits referred to in rule 4 every such petition shall be accompanied by an Affidavit from the Petitioner stating that he is not worth £25 in the world excepting his wearing apparel and his interest in the subject-matter of the intended Appeal, and that he is unable to provide sureties, and also by a certificate of Counsel that the Petitioner has reasonable ground of appeal.

9 Where a Petitioner obtains leave to appeal in forma pauperis he shall not be required to lodge security for the costs of the Respondent or to pay any Council Office fees.

10 A Petitioner whose petition for leave to appeal in forma pauperis is dismissed may, notwithstanding such dismissal be excused from paying the Council Office fees usually chargeable to a Petitioner in respect of a Petition for leave to appeal, if His Majesty in Council, on the advice of the Judicial Committee, shall think fit so to order.

Record and Appearance by Appellant

11 As soon as the Appeal has been admitted, whether by an Order of the Court appealed from or by an Order of His Majesty in Council granting special leave to appeal, the Appellant shall without delay take all necessary steps to have the Record transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council, and the Registrar shall, with all convenient speed, certify to the Registrar of the Privy Council that the Respondent has received notice, or is otherwise aware, of the Order of the Court appealed from admitting the Appeal, or of the Order of His Majesty in Council giving the Appellant special leave to appeal and has also received notice, or is otherwise aware, of the despatch of the Record to England. Where an Appellant who has obtained special leave to appeal by an Order of His Majesty in Council fails to have the Record transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council with due diligence the Registrar of the Privy Council shall call upon the Appellant to explain his default, and if no explanation is offered, or if the explanation offered is, in the opinion of the said Registrar insufficient, the said Registrar may issue a Summons to the Appellant calling upon him to show cause before the Judicial Committee at a time to be named in the said Summons why the special leave to appeal granted should not be rescinded. The Respondent shall be entitled to be heard before the Judicial Committee in the matter of the said Summons and to ask for his costs and such other relief as he may be advised. The Judicial Committee may, after considering the matter of the said Summons, recommend to His Majesty to rescind the grant of special leave to appeal or give such other directions therein as the justice of the case may require.

12 The Record shall be printed in accordance with the Rules contained in Schedule A hereto. It may be printed either abroad or in England. When printed abroad the parties in England shall, upon perusal, consider whether the order of the documents is in accordance with these Rules, and if it is not, they shall agree upon the proper order. The Appellant shall then rearrange copies of the Record for the use of the Judicial Committee and the other parties. In the event of the parties being unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the Registrar of the Privy Council who, if he thinks fit, may require the parties to attend before the Judicial Committee for directions.

13 Where the Record is printed abroad, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council 40 copies of such Record, one of which copies he shall certify to be correct by signing his name on, or initialling, every eighth page thereof and by affixing thereto the seal, if any, of the Court appealed from.

14 Where the Record is to be printed in England, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council one certified copy of such Record, together with an index of all the papers and exhibits in the case. No other certified copies of the Record shall be transmitted to the Agents in England by or on behalf of the parties to the Appeal.

15 Where part of the Record is printed abroad and part is to be printed in England, Rules 13 and 14 shall, as far as practicable, apply to such parts as are printed abroad and such as are to be printed in England respectively.

16 The reasons given by the Judge, or any of the Judges, for or against any judgment pronounced in the course of the proceedings out of which the Appeal arises, shall by such Judge or Judges be communicated in writing to the Registrar and shall be included in the Record.

17 The Registrar as well as the parties and their Agents, shall endeavour to exclude from the Record all documents (more particularly such as are merely formal) that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the Appeal, and, generally, to reduce the bulk of the Record as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid the duplication of documents and the unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents. But the documents omitted to be printed or copied shall be enumerated in a type-written list to be transmitted with the Record.

18 Where in the course of the preparation of a Record one party objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is unnecessary or irrelevant and the other party nevertheless insists upon its being included, the Record, as finally printed (whether abroad or in England), shall, with a view to the subsequent adjustment of the costs of and incidental to such document, indicate, in the index of papers, or otherwise, the fact that, and the party by whom, the inclusion of the document was objected to 19 As soon as the Record is received in the Registry of the Privy Council, it shall be registered in the said Registry, with the date of arrival, the names of the parties, and the description whether "printed" or "written." A Record, or any part of a Record, not printed in accordance with the rules contained in Schedule A hereto shall be treated as written. Appeals shall be numbered consecutively in each year in the order in which the Records are received in the said Registry.

20 The parties shall be entitled to inspect the Record and to extract all necessary particulars therefrom for the purpose of entering an Appearance.

21 The Appellant shall enter an Appearance before taking any steps in the prosecution of the Appeal, and after entering such Appearance, shall forthwith give notice thereof to the Respondent, if the latter has entered an Appearance.

22 Where the Record arrives in England either wholly written, or partly written and partly printed, the Appellant shall, within a period of four months from the date of such arrival in the case of Appeals from Courts situate in any of the countries or places named in Schedule B hereto, and within a period of two months from the same date in the case of Appeals from any other Courts, enter an Appearance and bespeak a type-written copy of the Record, or of such parts thereof as it may be necessary to have copied, and shall engage to pay the cost of preparing such copy at the following rates per folio type (exclusive of tabular matter) — 2d per folio of English matter, 2½d per folio of Indian matter, and 3½d per folio of foreign matter, and shall also engage to pay at such price as shall be fixed by the Registrar of the Privy Council the cost of printing at least 50 copies thereof.

23 As soon as the Appellant has obtained the type-written copy of the Record bespoken by him, he shall proceed, with due diligence, to arrange the documents in suitable order, to check the index, to insert the marginal notes and check the same with the index, and generally, to do whatever may be required for the purpose of preparing the copy for the printer in accordance with the Rules contained in Schedule A hereto, and shall, if the Respondent has entered an Appearance, submit the copy, as prepared for the Printer, to the Respondent for his approval. In the event of the parties being unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the Registrar of the Privy Council who, if he thinks fit, may require the parties to attend before the Judicial Committee for directions.

24 As soon as the type-written copy of the Record is ready for the printer, the Appellant shall lodge in the Registry of the Privy Council for printing by a printer selected by the Registrar of the Privy Council, and at the same time shall lodge the amount of the estimated cost of printing the Record.

25 Whenever it shall be found that the decision of a matter on appeal is likely to turn exclusively on a question of law, the parties, with the sanction of the Registrar of the Privy Council, may submit such question of law to the Judicial Committee in the form of a Special Case, and print such parts only of the Record as may be necessary for the discussion of the same. Provided that nothing herein contained shall in any way prevent the Judicial Committee from ordering the full discussion of the whole case, if they shall so think fit, and that, in order to promote such arrangements and simplification of the matter in dispute, the said Registrar may call the parties before him, and having heard them, and examined the Record, may report to the Judicial Committee as to the nature of the proceedings.

26 The Registrar of the Privy Council shall, as soon as the proof prints of the Record are ready, give notice to all parties who have entered an Appearance requesting them to attend at the Registry of the Privy Council at a time to be named in such notice in order to examine the said proof prints and compare the same with the certified Record, and shall, for that purpose, furnish each of the said parties with one proof print. After the examination has been completed, the Appellant shall, without delay, lodge his proof print, duly corrected and (so far as necessary) approved by the Respondent, and the Registrar of the Privy Council shall thereupon cause the copies of the Record to be struck off from such proof print.

27 Each party who has entered an Appearance shall be entitled to receive, for his own use, six copies of the Record.

28 Subject to any special direction from the Judicial Committee to the contrary, the costs of, and incidental to, the printing of the Record shall form part of the costs of the Appeal, but the costs of, and incidental to, the printing of any document objected to by one party, in accordance with Rule 18, shall, if such document is found on the taxation of costs to be unnecessary or irrelevant, be disallowed to, or borne by, the party insisting on including the same in the Record.

Petition of Appeal

29 The Appellant shall lodge his Petition of Appeal —

(a) Where the Record arrives in England printed, within a period of four months from the date of such arrival in the case of Appeals from Courts situate in any of the countries or places named in Schedule B hereto, and within a period of two months from the same date in the case of Appeals from any other Courts,

(b) Where the Record arrives in England written, within a period of one month from, but not before, the date of the completion of the printing thereof.

Provided that nothing in this Rule contained shall preclude the Appellant from lodging his Petition of Appeal prior to the arrival of the Record, or the completion of the printing thereof, if there are special reasons why, in the opinion of the Registrar of the Privy Council, it should be desirable for him to do so.

30 The Petition of Appeal shall be lodged in the form prescribed by Rule 47 hereinafter contained. It shall recite succinctly and, as far as possible, in chronological order, the principal steps in the proceedings leading up to the Appeal from the commencement thereof down to the admission of the Appeal, but shall not contain argumentative matter or travel into the merits of the case

31 The Appellant shall, after lodging his Petition of Appeal, serve a copy thereof without delay on the Respondent, as soon as the latter has entered an Appearance, and shall endorse such copy with the date of the lodgment

Withdrawal of Appeal

32 Where an Appellant, who has not lodged his Petition of Appeal, desires to withdraw his Appeal, he shall give notice in writing to that effect to the Registrar of the Privy Council, and the said Registrar shall, with all convenient speed after the receipt of such notice, by letter notify the Registrar of the Court appealed from that the Appeal has been withdrawn, and the said Appeal shall thereupon stand dismissed as from the date of the said letter without further Order

33 Where an Appellant, who has lodged his Petition of Appeal, desires to withdraw his Appeal, he shall present a Petition to that effect to His Majesty in Council. On the hearing of any such Petition a Respondent who has entered an Appearance in the Appeal shall, subject to any agreement between him and the Appellant to the contrary, be entitled to apply to the Judicial Committee for his costs, but where the Respondent has not entered an Appearance, or, having entered an Appearance consents in writing to the prayer of the Petition, the Petition may, if the Judicial Committee think fit, be disposed of in the same way mutatis mutandis as a Consent Petition under the provisions of Rule 56 hereinafter contained

Non-prosecution of Appeal

34 Where an Appellant takes no step in prosecution of his Appeal within a period of four months from the date of the arrival of the Record in England in the case of an Appeal from a Court situate in any of the countries or places named in Schedule B hereto, or within a period of two months from the same date in the case of an Appeal from any other Court, the Registrar of the Privy Council shall, with all convenient speed, by letter notify the Registrar of the Court appealed from that the Appeal has not been prosecuted, and the Appeal shall thereupon stand dismissed for non-prosecution as from the date of the said letter without further Order, and a copy of the said letter shall be sent by the Registrar of the Privy Council to any Respondent who has entered an Appearance in the Appeal

35 Where an Appellant who has entered an Appearance—

- (a) fails to bespeak a copy of a written Record, or of part of a written Record, in accordance with, and within the periods prescribed by rule 22, or

(b) having bespoken such copy within the periods prescribed by rule 22, fails thereafter to proceed with due diligence to take all such further steps as may be necessary for the purpose of completing the printing of the said record, or

(c) fails to lodge his Petition of Appeal within the periods respectively prescribed by Rule 29, the Registrar of the Privy Council shall call upon the Appellant to explain his default, and, if no explanation is offered, or if the explanation offered is, in the opinion of the said Registrar, insufficient, the said Registrar shall, with all convenient speed, by letter notify the Registrar of the Court appealed from that the Appeal has not been effectually prosecuted, and the Appeal shall thereupon stand dismissed for non-prosecution as from the date of the said letter without further Order, and a copy of the said letter shall be sent by the Registrar of the Privy Council to all the parties who have entered an Appearance in the Appeal

36 Where an Appellant, who has lodged his Petition of Appeal, fails thereafter to prosecute his Appeal with due diligence the Registrar of the Privy Council shall call upon him to explain his default, and, if no explanation is offered, or if the explanation offered is, in the opinion of the said Registrar, insufficient, the said Registrar shall issue a Summons to the Appellant calling upon him to show cause before the Judicial Committee at a time to be named in the said Summons why the Appeal should not be dismissed for non-prosecution. Provided that no such Summons shall be issued by the said Registrar before the expiration of one year from the date of the arrival of the Record in England. If the respondent has entered an Appearance in the Appeal, the Registrar of the Privy Council shall send him a copy of the said Summons, and the Respondent shall be entitled to be heard before the Judicial Committee in the matter of the said Summons at the time named and to ask for his costs and such other relief as he may be advised. The Judicial Committee may, after considering the matter of the said Summons, recommend to His Majesty the dismissal of the Appeal for non-prosecution, or give such other directions therein as the justice of the case may require.

37 An Appellant whose Appeal has been dismissed for non-prosecution may present a Petition to His Majesty in Council praying that his Appeal may be restored.

Appearance by Respondent

38 The Respondent may enter an Appearance at any time between the arrival of the Record and the hearing of the appeal, but if he unduly delays entering an Appearance he shall bear, or be disallowed, the costs occasioned by such delay, unless the Judicial Committee otherwise direct.

39 The Respondent shall forthwith after entering an Appearance give notice thereof to the Appellant, if the latter has entered an Appearance.

40 Where there are two or more Respondents, and only one, or some of them enter an Appearance, the Appearance Form shall set out the names of the appearing Respondents.

41 Two or more Respondents may, at their own risk as to costs, enter separate Appearances in the same Appeal

42 A Respondent who has not entered an Appearance shall not be entitled to receive any notices relating to the Appeal from the Registrar of the Privy Council, nor be allowed to lodge a Case in the Appeal

43 Where a Respondent fails to enter an Appearance in an Appeal, the following Rules shall, subject to any special Order of the Judicial Committee to the contrary, apply —

(a) If the non-appearing Respondent was a Respondent at the time when the Appeal was admitted, whether by the Order of the Court appealed from or by an Order of His Majesty in Council giving the Appellant special leave to appeal, and it appears from the terms of the said Order, or Order in Council, or otherwise from the Record, or from a Certificate of the Registrar of the Court appealed from, that the said non-appearing Respondent has received notice, or was otherwise aware, of the Order of the Court appealed from admitting the Appeal, or of the Order of His Majesty in Council giving the Appellant special leave to appeal, and has also received notice or was otherwise aware, of the despatch of the Record to England, the Appeal may, if all other conditions of its being set down are satisfied, be set down ex parte as against the said non-appearing Respondent at any time after the expiration of three months from the date of the lodging of the Petition of Appeal,

(b) If the non-appearing Respondent was made a Respondent by an Order of His Majesty in Council subsequently to the admission of the Appeal, and it appears from the Record, or from a Supplementary Record, or from a Certificate of the Registrar of the Court appealed from, that the said non-appearing Respondent has received notice, or was otherwise aware, of any intended application to bring him on the Record as a Respondent, the Appeal may, if all other conditions of its being set down are satisfied, be set down ex parte as against the said non-appearing Respondent at any time after the expiration of three months from the date on which he shall have been served with a copy of His Majesty's Order in Council bringing him on the Record as a Respondent

Provided that where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Registrar of the Privy Council, by Affidavit or otherwise, either that an Appellant has made every reasonable endeavour to serve a non-appearing Respondent with the notices mentioned in clauses (a) and (b) respectively and has failed to effect such service, or that it is not the intention of the non-appearing Respondent to enter an Appearance to the Appeal, the Appeal may without further Order in that behalf and at the risk of the Appellant, be proceeded with ex parte as against the said non-appearing Respondent

44 A Respondent who desires to defend an appeal in forma pauperis may present a Petition to that effect to His Majesty in Council, which Petition shall be accompanied by an Affidavit from the Petitioner stating that he is not worth £25 in the world excepting his wearing apparel and his interest in the subject-matter of the Appeal,

Petitions generally

45 All Petitions for orders or directions as to matters of practice or procedure arising after the lodging of the Petition of Appeal and not involving any change in the parties to an Appeal shall be addressed to the Judicial Committee. All other Petitions shall be addressed to His Majesty in Council, but a Petition which is properly addressed to His Majesty in Council may include, as incidental to the relief thereby sought, a prayer for orders or directions as to matters of practice or procedure.

46 Where an Order made by the Judicial Committee does not embody any special terms or include any special directions, it shall not be necessary to draw up such Order, unless the Committee otherwise direct, but a Note thereof shall be made by the Registrar of the Privy Council.

47 All Petitions shall consist of paragraphs numbered consecutively and shall be written, type-written, or lithographed, on brief paper with quarter margin and endorsed with the name of the Court appealed from, the full title and Privy Council number of the Appeal to which the Petition relates or the full title of the Petition (as the case may be) and the name and address of the London Agent (if any) of the Petitioner, but need not be signed, except as provided by Rule 3. Unless the Petition is a Consent Petition within the meaning of Rule 56 at least five copies thereof shall be lodged.

48 Where a Petition is expected to be lodged or has been lodged which does not relate to any pending Appeal of which the Record has been registered in the Registry of the Privy Council, any person claiming a right to appear before the Judicial Committee on the hearing of such Petition may lodge a Caveat in the matter thereof, and shall thereupon be entitled to receive from the Registrar of the Privy Council notice of the lodging of the Petition if at the time of the lodging of the Caveat such Petition has not yet been lodged, and, if and when the Petition has been lodged to require the Petitioner to serve him with a copy of the Petition, and to furnish him at his own expense, with copies of any papers lodged by the Petitioner in support of his Petition. The Caveator shall forthwith after lodging his Caveat give notice thereof to the Petitioner if the Petition has been lodged.

49 Where a Petition is lodged in the matter of any pending Appeal of which the Record has been registered in the Registry of the Privy Council, the Petitioner shall serve any party who has entered an Appearance in the Appeal with a copy of such Petition, and the party so served shall thereupon be entitled to require the Petitioner to furnish him, at his own expense, with copies of any papers lodged by the Petitioner in support of his Petition.

50 A Petition not relating to any Appeal of which the Record has been registered in the Registry of the Privy Council, and any other Petition containing allegations of fact which cannot be verified by reference to the registered Record or any certificate or duly authenticated statement of the Court appealed from, shall be supported by Affidavit. Where the Petitioner prosecutes his Petition in person the said Affidavit shall be sworn by the Petitioner himself and shall state that, to the best of the deponent's knowledge, information, and belief, the allegations contained in the Petition are true. Where the Petitioner is represented by an Agent, the said Affidavit shall be sworn by such Agent and shall, besides stating that, to the best of the deponent's knowledge, information, and belief, the allegations contained in the Petition are true, show how the deponent obtained his instructions and the information enabling him to present the Petition.

51 A Petition for an Order of Revivor or Substitution shall be accompanied by a certificate or duly authenticated statement from the Court appealed from showing who, in the opinion of the said Court, is the proper person to be substituted, or entered on the Record in place of, or in addition to, a party, who has died or undergone a change of status.

52 The Registrar of the Privy Council may refuse to receive a Petition on the grounds that it discloses no reasonable cause of appeal, or is frivolous, or contains scandalous matter, but the Petitioner may appeal, by way of motion, from such refusal to the Judicial Committee.

53 As soon as a Petition and all necessary documents are lodged the Petition shall thereupon be deemed to be set down.

54 On each day appointed by the Judicial Committee for the hearing of Petitions the Registrar of the Privy Council shall, unless the Committee otherwise direct, put in the paper for hearing all such Petitions as have been set down. Provided that, in the absence of special circumstances of urgency to be shown to the satisfaction of the said Registrar, no Petition, if opposed, shall be put in the paper for hearing before the expiration of ten clear days from the lodging thereof, unless the Opponent consents to the Petition being put in the paper on an earlier day.

55 Subject to the provisions of the next following Rule, the Registrar of the Privy Council shall, as soon as the Judicial Committee have appointed a day for the hearing of a Petition, notify all parties concerned by Summons of the day so appointed.

56 Where the prayer of a Petition is consented to in writing by the opposite party, or where a Petition is of a formal and non-contentious character, the Judicial Committee may, if they think fit, make their Report to His Majesty on such Petition, or make their Order thereon, as the case may be, without requiring the attendance of the parties in the Council Chamber, and the Registrar of the Privy Council shall not in any such case issue the Summons provided for by the last preceding Rule, but shall with all convenient speed after the Committee have made their Report or Order notify the parties that the Report or Order has been made and of the date and nature of such Report or Order.

57 A Petitioner who desires to withdraw his Petition shall give notice in writing to that effect to the Registrar of the Privy Council. Where the Petition is opposed, the Opponent shall, subject to any agreement between the parties to the contrary, be entitled to apply to the Judicial Committee for his costs, but where the Petition is unopposed, or where, in the case of an opposed Petition, the parties have come to an agreement as to the costs of the Petition, the Petitioner may, if the Judicial Committee think fit, be disposed of in the same way mutatis mutandis as a Consent Petition under the provisions of the last preceding Rule.

58 Where a Petitioner unduly delays bringing a Petition to a hearing, the Registrar of the Privy Council shall call upon him to explain the delay, and, if no explanation is offered, or if the explanation offered is, in the opinion of the said Registrar, insufficient, the said Registrar may, after notifying all parties interested by Summons of his intention to do so, put the Petition in the paper for hearing on the next following day appointed by the Judicial Committee for the hearing of Petitions for such directions as the Committee may think fit to give thereon.

59 At the hearing of a Petition not more than one Counsel shall be admitted to be heard on a side.

Case

60 No party to an Appeal shall be entitled to be heard by the Judicial Committee unless he has previously lodged his Case in the Appeal. Provided that where a Respondent, who has entered an Appearance, does not desire to lodge a Case in the Appeal, he may give the Registrar of the Privy Council notice in writing of his intention not to lodge any Case, while reserving his right to address the Judicial Committee on the question of costs.

61 The Case may be printed either abroad or in England, and shall, in either event, be printed in accordance with Rules I to III contained in Schedule A hereto, every tenth line thereof being numbered in the margin, and shall be signed by at least one of the Counsel who attends at the hearing of the Appeal or by the party himself if he conducts his Appeal in person.

62 Each party shall lodge 30 prints of his Case.

63 The Case shall consist of paragraphs numbered consecutively and shall state, as concisely as possible, the circumstances out of which the Appeal arises, the contentions to be urged by the party lodging the same, and the reasons of appeal. References by page and line to the relevant portions of the Record as printed shall, as far as practicable, be printed in the margin, and care shall be taken to avoid, as far as possible, the reprinting in the Case of long extracts from the Record. The Taxing Officer, in taxing the costs of the Appeal, shall, either of his own motion, or at the instance of the opposite party, inquire into any unnecessary prolixity in the Case, and shall disallow the costs occasioned thereby.

64 Two or more Respondents may, at their own risk as to costs, lodge separate Cases in the same Appeal.

65 Each party shall, after lodging his Case, forthwith give notice thereof to the other party.

66 Subject as hereinafter provided, the party who lodges his Case first may, at any time after the expiration of three clear days from the day on which he has given the other party the notice prescribed by the last preceding Rule, serve such other party, if the latter has not in the meantime lodged his Case, with a "Case Notice," requiring him to lodge his Case within one month from the date of the service of the said Case Notice and informing him that, in default of his so doing, the Appeal will be set down for hearing ex parte as against him, and if the other party fails to comply with the said Case Notice, the party who has lodged his Case may, at any time after the expiration of the time limited by the said Case Notice for the lodging of the Case, lodge an Affidavit of Service (which shall set out the terms of the said Case Notice), and the Appeal shall thereupon, if all other conditions of its being set down are satisfied, be set down ex parte as against the party in default. Provided that no Case Notice shall be served until after the completion of the printing, or re-arrangement under Rule 12, of the Record, and also that nothing in this Rule contained shall preclude the party in default from lodging his Case, at his own risk as regards costs and otherwise, at any time up to the date of hearing.

67 Subject to the provisions of Rule 43 and of the last preceding Rule, an Appeal shall be set down ipso facto as soon as the Cases on both sides are lodged, and the parties shall thereupon exchange Cases by handing one another, either at the Offices of one of the Agents or in the Registry of the Privy Council, ten copies of their respective Cases.

Binding Records, etc

68 As soon as an Appeal is set down, the Appellant shall attend at the Registry of the Privy Council and obtain ten copies of the Record and Cases to be bound for the use of the Judicial Committee at the hearing. The copies shall be bound in cloth or in half leather with paper sides, and six leaves of blank paper shall be inserted before the Appellant's Case. The front cover shall bear a printed label stating the title and Privy Council number of the Appeal, the contents of the volume, and the names and addresses of the London Agents. The several documents, indicated by incuts, shall be arranged in the following order: (1) Appellant's Case, (2) Respondent's Case, (3) Record (if in more than one part, showing the separate parts by incuts, all parts being paged at the top of the page), (4) Supplemental Record (if any), and the short title and Privy Council number of the Appeal shall also be shown on the back.

69 The Appellant shall lodge the bound copies not less than four clear days before the commencement of the Sittings during which the Appeal is to be heard.

Hearing

70 The Registrar of the Privy Council shall name a day on or before which Appeals must be set down if they are to be entered in the List of Business for the ensuing Sittings. All Appeals set down on or before the day named shall, subject to any directions from the Committee or to any agreement between the parties to the contrary, be entered in such List of Business and shall, subject to any directions from the Committee to the contrary, be heard in the order in which they are set down.

71 The Registrar of the Privy Council shall, subject to the provisions of Rule 42, notify the parties to each Appeal by Summons, at the earliest possible date, of the day appointed by the Judicial Committee for the hearing of the Appeal, and the parties shall be in readiness to be heard on the day so appointed.

72 At the hearing of an Appeal not more than two Counsel shall be admitted to be heard on a side

73 In Admiralty Appeals the Judicial Committee may, if they think fit, require the attendance of two Nautical Assessors

Judgment

74 Where the Judicial Committee, after hearing an Appeal, decide to reserve their Judgment thereon, the Registrar of the Privy Council shall in due course notify the parties by Summons of the day appointed by the Committee for the delivery of the judgment

Costs

75 All Bills of Costs under the Orders of the Judicial Committee on Appeals, Petitions, and other matters, shall be referred to the Registrar of the Privy Council, or such other person as the Judicial Committee may appoint, for taxation, and all such taxations shall be regulated by the Schedule of Fees set forth in Schedule C hereto

76 The taxation of costs in England shall be limited to costs incurred in England.

77 The Registrar of the Privy Council shall, with all convenient speed after the Judicial Committee have given their decision as to the costs of an Appeal, Petition, or other matter, issue to the party to whom costs have been awarded an Order to tax and a Notice specifying the day and hour appointed by him for taxation. The party receiving such Order to tax and Notice shall, not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for taxation, lodge his Bill of Costs (together with all necessary vouchers for disbursements), and serve the opposite party with a copy of his Bill of Costs and of the Order to tax and Notice

78 The Taxing Officer may, if he think fit, disallow to any party who fails to lodge his Bill of Costs (together with all necessary vouchers for disbursements) within the time prescribed by the last preceding Rule, or who in any way delays or impedes a taxation, the charges to which such party would otherwise be entitled for drawing his Bill of Costs and attending the taxation

79 Any party aggrieved by a taxation may appeal from the decision of the Taxing Officer to the Judicial Committee. The Appeal shall be heard by way of motion, and the party appealing shall give three clear days Notice of Motion to the opposite party, and shall also leave a copy of such Notice in the Registry of the Privy Council

80 The amount allowed by the Taxing Officer on the taxation shall, subject to any appeal from his taxation to the Judicial Committee and subject to any direction from the Committee to the contrary, be inserted, in His Majesty's Order in Council determining the Appeal or Petition

81 Where the Judicial Committee directs costs to be taxed on the pauper side, the Taxing Officer shall not allow any fees of Counsel, and shall only award to the Agents out-of-pocket expenses and a reasonable allowance to cover office expenses, such allowance to be taken at about three-eighths of the usual professional charges in ordinary Appeals. Such pauper scale shall apply to and include the application upon which leave to appeal in forma pauperis was granted.

82. Where the Appellant has lodged security for the Respondent's costs of an Appeal in the Registry of the Privy Council, the Registrar of the Privy Council shall deal with such security in accordance with the directions contained in His Majesty's Order in Council determining the Appeal.

Miscellaneous

83. The Judicial Committee may, for sufficient cause shown, excuse the parties from compliance with any of the requirements of these Rules, and may give such directions in matters of practice and procedure as they shall consider just and expedient. Applications to be excused for compliance with the requirements of any of these Rules shall be addressed in the first instance to the Registrar of the Privy Council, who shall take the instructions of the Committee thereon and communicate the same to the parties. If, in the opinion of the said Registrar, it is desirable that the application should be dealt with by the Committee in open Court, he may direct the party applying to lodge in the Registry of the Privy Council, and to serve the opposite party with, a Notice of Motion returnable before the Committee.

84. Any document lodged in connection with an Appeal, Petition, or other matter pending before His Majesty in Council or the Judicial Committee, may be amended by leave of the Registrar of the Privy Council, but if the said Registrar is of opinion that an application for leave to amend should be dealt with by the Committee in open Court, he may direct the party applying to lodge in the Registry of the Privy Council, and to serve the opposite party with, a Notice of Motion returnable before the Committee.

85. Affidavits relating to any Appeal, Petition or other matter pending before His Majesty in Council or the Judicial Committee may be sworn before the Registrar of the Privy Council.

86. Where a party to an Appeal, Petition, or other matter pending before His Majesty in Council changes his Agent, such party, or the new Agent, shall forthwith give the Registrar of the Privy Council and the outgoing Agent notice in writing of the change, and shall amend the Appearance accordingly. Until such notices are given the former Agent shall be considered the Agent of the party until the final conclusion of the Appeal, Petition, or other matter.

87. Subject to the provisions of any Statute or of any Statutory Rules or Order to the contrary, these rules shall apply to all matters falling within the Appellate Jurisdiction of His Majesty in Council.

88. These Rules may be cited as the Judicial Committee Rules, 1925, and they shall come into operation on the 1st day of January, 1926.

VI Part I shall be arranged strictly in chronological order, i.e., in the same order as the index

Part II shall be arranged in the most convenient way for the use of the Judicial Committee, as the circumstances of the case require. The documents shall be printed as far as suitable in chronological order, mixing Plaintiff's and Defendant's documents together when necessary. Each document shall show its exhibit mark, and whether it is a Plaintiff's or Defendant's document (unless this is clear from the exhibit mark) and in all cases documents relating to the same matter, such as—

(a) a series of correspondence, or

(b) proceedings in a suit other than the one under appeal

shall be kept together. The order in the Record of the documents in Part II will probably be different from the order of the Index, and the proper page number of each document shall be inserted in the printed Index

Part II

The word "Exhibits" shall first appear

The marginal note of the exhibit shall then appear consisting of the exhibit mark and the description of the document in the Index with the date.

X. The parties shall agree to the omission of formal and irrelevant documents, but the description of the document may appear (both in the Index and in the Record), if desired, with the words "not printed" against it.

A long series of documents, such as accounts, rent rolls, inventories; etc., shall not be printed in full, unless Counsel so advise, but the parties shall agree to short extracts being printed as specimens

XI In cases where maps sent from abroad are of an inconvenient size or unsuitable in character, the Appellant shall, in agreement with the Respondent, prepare in England, from the materials sent from abroad, maps drawn properly to scale and of reasonable size, showing, as far as possible, the claims of the respective parties, in different colours

References to a Full Bench.

1 Whenever one Division Court shall differ from any other Division Court upon a point of law or usage having the force of law, the case shall be referred for decision by a Full Bench

2 If the question arise in an Appeal from an Appellate Decree, the Court referring the case shall state the point or points upon which they differ from the decision of a former Division Court and shall refer the Appeal for the final decision of a Full Bench

3 If the question arise in an Appeal from an Original Decree, the questions of law shall alone be referred, and the Full Bench shall return the case with an expression of its opinion upon the points of law for final adjudication by the Division Court which referred it, and in case of necessity in consequence of the absence of any or either of the referring Judges for the ultimate decision of another Division Court

4 If the question arise in any matter coming before a Division Court in the exercise of its Civil Revisional Jurisdiction, the point or points shall be stated as provided in rule 2, and the matter shall be referred for the final decision of a Full Bench

5 If the question arise in any case coming before a Division Court as a Court of Criminal Appeal, Reference or Revision, the Court referring the case shall state the point or points on which they differ from the decision of a former Division Court and shall refer the case to a Full Bench for such orders as to such Bench may seem fit

6 Every decision of a Full Bench shall be treated as binding on all Division Courts, and Judges sitting singly, upon the point of law or usage having the force of law determined by the Full Bench, unless it be subsequently reversed by a Bench specially constituted, consisting of such number of Judges, in each case shall have been fixed by the Chief Justice, or unless a contrary rule be laid down by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council

10 On receipt of the record from the lower Court it shall be the duty of the Registrar to see that the Paper-book in an appeal from an Original Decree for the use of the High Court at its hearing is prepared in accordance with the directions given in the following Rules

Provided that the Registrar of the Division Court having jurisdiction over any particular Group may, for sufficient cause shown, pass any special order regarding the preparation of the Paper-book of any particular Appeal belonging to that Group

Part II of the Paper-book shall consist of exhibits

NOTE (1) — No finding or conclusion in the decision appealed from will be permitted to be challenged at the hearing of the Appeal unless the material on which such challenge is based is included in the Paper book

NOTE (2) — Whenever a map prepared by a settlement or survey authority and issued in printed form is necessary for inclusion in a paper-book such map being an exhibit in the case, it shall not be necessary to reprint and reproduce such map. It will be sufficient if the requisite number of copies of the map are filed by the party concerned, if such copies can be purchased from the Government or other agents selling the same. Such copies when filed shall be taken as forming part of the Paper-book. If in any case any lines, symbols or marks have been drawn, inserted or made in the map by any Survey Commissioner appointed by the Lower Court, or by any witness or party or by the Court itself, such lines, symbols or marks being drawn, inserted or made under the authority of the presiding Judge, those lines, symbols or marks shall be reproduced on the copies of the map filed by the party or parties in the appeal.

12 Upon receipt of the records the Officer in charge of the Judicial Department shall serve a notice on the Appellant requiring him to prepare and deliver to such Officer a list of all papers (other than those mentioned in the first paragraph of Rule 11 above) upon which the decision of the Appeal depends and which the Assistant desires to be included in Parts I and II of the Paper-book at his expense. This list shall be called "The Appellant's List" and shall be divided into two parts. Part I shall contain papers other than exhibits and Part II shall contain the exhibits

13 Such list shall be in form No 10 (civil) of Appendix I

Printed copies of the form of this list will be supplied, to the parties or the Advocates entitled to act for them, free of cost, on application to the Forms Clerk

14 There shall be entered in such list all documents on which the decision of the Appeal depends

Provided that if it is necessary only to print a portion of any particular document for the decision of the Appeal the relevant portion shall be specified

Provided also that ordinarily a long series of documents, such as accounts, rent-rolls, etc., shall not be printed in full but the parties, or their legal agents, shall agree to short extracts being printed, if necessary, in tabular form

15 In Part II of this list the exhibits should retain their original numbers with the proper page numbers attached, the documents should be arranged, as far as suitable, in chronological order, mixing plaintiff's and defendant's documents together, when necessary, but in all cases documents relating to the same series, or to the same subject (e.g., a series of correspondence, or proceedings in a suit other than the one under appeal) should be kept together. A correct and full description of such documents must be given

16 The Appellant shall within three weeks after service of the notice required by Rule 12, deliver to the Officer in charge of the Judicial Department his complete list prepared in accordance with the above Rules

Applications for enlargement of the time allowed under this Rule shall ordinarily be made before the expiry of the prescribed time, shall be duly stamped with a Court Fee of Rs 2 and shall set forth sufficient grounds in support of the application

17 On receipt of the list of the papers to be included in Parts I and II of the Paper-book at the expense of the Appellant, the Officer in charge of the Judicial Department shall cause to be prepared estimates of the cost of the preparation of Parts I and II of the Paper-book

18 As soon as the list is delivered to the Officer in charge of the Judicial Department by the Appellant, the former shall, if the Respondent enters appearance on or before the date mentioned in the notice under Order XLI, Rule 14, Civil Procedure Code, give notice of such delivery to such Respondent; and if the Respondent fails to enter appearance on or before the date mentioned in the notice under Order XLI, Rule 14, and if it shall appear that the said notice has been duly served on such Respondent, he shall not, without the leave of the Registrar, obtained upon an application (unstamped) filed simultaneously with the

Vakalatnama explaining the delay in appearing and asking for notice of the Appellant's list, be entitled to file a list of papers for insertion in the Paper-book under Rule 20

19 Every Respondent, who has entered appearance, shall be entitled to inspect the Appellant's list and, at his own expense, to obtain a copy of the whole or of any portion thereof

20 Every such Respondent shall, within three weeks after service upon him of the notice required by Rule 18, deliver to the Officer in charge of the Judicial Department a list in duplicate in form No 11 (civil) of Appendix I, of the papers other than those inserted in the Appellant's list, and relevant to the subject matter of the Appeal, to which such Respondent desires that reference shall be made by the Court at the hearing of the Appeal and which shall be inserted in the Paper-book at such Respondent's expense. Such list shall be termed "The Respondent's List" and shall be divided into two parts like the Appellant's List (Rule 12)

20A The Advocates for the Appellant and the Respondent shall at the time of filing their respective Lists, enter in such Lists the names and correct addresses (with Post Office) of the parties on whose behalf the Lists are filed by them

21 The Officer in charge of the Judicial Department shall within fourteen days after the delivery by the Appellant and the Respondent of their lists, respectively, make and deliver to the Advocate for such Appellant and to the Advocate for such Respondent separate estimates of the cost of preparing their portions of the Paper-book in form Nos 12 (civil) and 13 (civil), respectively, of Appendix I. Copies of the estimate shall be served on the parties (Appellant and Respondent) themselves by registered post with acknowledgment due, the cost for the same being included in the estimate and deducted from the Initial Deposit

Every estimate for the cost of preparation of the Paper-book shall include the cost of transcribing, translating, and printing, etc., the documents mentioned in the first paragraph of Rule 11 above. No revision of the lists filed by the Advocates of either party shall be allowed after the estimates have been prepared and served on the respective Advocates, except under the orders of the Registrar to be obtained on an application with notice to the other side. The application for revision shall be a verified one but if the revision is agreed to by the opposite party such application for revision need not be verified.

22 The Appellant and Respondent respectively shall deposit with the Accountant of the Court the amount due on the estimates served under Rule 21 within the periods here specified—

(a) The amount due for estimating, translating, and examining translations, after (in the case of the Appellant) deducting the amount of the Initial Deposit made under Rule 34(1), Chapter V, within four weeks of the service of the estimate, and

(b) The whole of the remainder within eight weeks of the service of the estimate.

23 If the Respondent considers that any paper or portion of a paper which ought to have been inserted in the Appellant's list under the provisions of Rule 14 has been omitted therefrom in violation of these provisions, he may, at the time of filing the Respondent's list as prescribed in Rule 20, and after giving notice to the Appellant of his intended application, apply to the Registrar for an order that such paper or portion of a paper be inserted in the Paper-book of the case at the cost of the Appellant.

Provided that if any such application by a Respondent is disallowed by the Registrar, such Respondent shall be at liberty, at that time, to pray for the inclusion of the papers mentioned in his application, in his list (that is, the Respondent's List) at his own cost.

Provided also that if the Respondent has entered appearance out of time he shall not be permitted to pray for the inclusion in, or exclusion from, the Appellant's list of any papers whatsoever.

24 If one party objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is unnecessary or irrelevant, and the other party nevertheless insists upon its being included and the Registrar allows the document to be included, the Order-book and List shall clearly indicate the fact that, and the party by whom, the inclusion of the document was objected to.

25 The Registrar as well as the parties and their legal agents shall endeavour to exclude from the Paper-book all documents (more particularly such as are merely formal) that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the Appeal, and generally, to reduce the bulk of the Paper-book, as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid the duplication of documents and the unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents

NOTE (1) —Ordinarily, a long series of documents, such as accounts, rent-rolls, inventories, etc., should not be printed in full, but the parties or their legal agents should agree to short extracts being printed as specimens

NOTE (2) —Documents produced before the Court of first instance, but not admitted in evidence, shall not be included in the Paper-book except under the orders of the Registrar obtained upon an application (unstamped) with notice to the opposite party. An Advocate desiring to refer to any such document at the hearing of the Appeal before the High Court shall, at any time before the hearing, serve on the Advocate for the opposite party a typewritten copy, or a typewritten copy of the translation, as the case may be, of any such document to which he desires that reference should be made, and shall also provide two such typewritten copies or typewritten copies of the translation for the use of the Court. If he fails to do so he shall not refer to such document at the hearing and no adjournment of the Appeal will be granted on this account unless the Court otherwise directs

26 The Appellant's and the Respondent's lists shall each bear a certificate under the hand of the Advocate for such Appellant or Respondent in the following form —

I, A B, Advocate for _____ do hereby certify that I have carefully examined this list with reference to the provisions of Rule 25 Chapter IX of the Appellate Side Rules, and declare that in my judgment it is necessary to include in the Paper-book of the Appeal every document, or portion of a document, included in the list in order to arrive at proper decision of the Appeal

27 If the Respondent does not enter an appearance or does not deliver the list directed by, and within the time prescribed by, Rule 20, and if no order be made under Rule 23, the Paper-book shall be prepared in accordance with the Appellant's list

28 When two or more Appellants or Respondents have the same interest in the Appeal, one set of list only shall be required from all such Appellants or Respondents. Appellants or Respondents having separate interests shall deliver separate sets of lists. In such cases the principle of Rule 32 shall apply

29 If any of the papers, which must be inserted in the Appellant's List or in the Respondent's List, was previously printed in a former Paper-book, the fact of its having been so printed must be stated in the list in which such paper is inserted. Such papers shall not be printed unless the Registrar otherwise directs

Provided that it shall be open to the Registrar to direct that the party who refers to papers in a previous Paper-book shall, unless he was the Appellant in the previous case, pay the charge fixed for the sale of Paper-books from the Record Department for the use of the previous Paper-book

30 No paper in the record of the case, which is not inserted in the Appellant's or Respondent's List, or ordered to be included in the Paper-book under Rule 23, and printed in the Paper-book of the case or in a previous Paper-book, shall be referred to at the hearing of the Appeal without the special leave of the Court. But this rule shall not preclude the Court from referring to any paper to which it considers a reference necessary for the ends of justice

31 If it subsequently appears that the amount deposited by either party to the Appeal is insufficient to defray the cost of preparing his portion of the Paper-book, or a supplementary Paper-book after remand, the Officer in charge of the Judicial Department shall estimate the additional amount required and shall give notice thereof to such party. Such additional amount shall be deposited by such party with the Accountant of the Court within two weeks after service upon him of such notice. No work in the matter of the preparation of the Paper-book, which is likely to cost more than the sum deposited, should ordinarily be undertaken, until such additional deposit has been made, unless the Registrar shall otherwise direct

32 When separate Appeals have been preferred by different persons against the same decree, complete lists of the documents which the parties wish to include in the Paper-book shall be delivered by the parties to each Appeal. Common matter shall appear in one Paper-book only, the other Paper-books containing references to the pages of the Paper-book in which such common matter appears. In such cases the Officer in charge of the Judicial Department shall, subject to the order of the Registrar, apportion between the parties concerned the cost of preparation in respect of matter common to all or any of the parties. The estimates for the cost of the preparation of Parts I and II of the Paper-books in such cases shall not be served on the parties until such apportionment has been made. This rule shall also apply when two or more separate Appeals are preferred in analogous cases.

33 If the Appellant fails to deliver his list of papers in accordance with Rule 16, or if the Appellant or Respondent fails to make the deposit or additional deposit, required by Rules 22 and 31, respectively, the Officer in charge of the Judicial Department shall lay the matter before the Registrar, who may, in case of default by the Appellant, cause the appeal to be set down for hearing, and the Court may, unless satisfied that there was reasonable ground for the default, direct the Appeal to be dismissed for want of prosecution or may pass such other order as may seem proper in the circumstances of the case

34 The Appellant shall within two weeks of the filing of the Vakalatnama authorising an Advocate to file the Appeal, file with the Officer in charge of the Judicial Department a declaration duly signed by himself stating the name of the Advocate, duly qualified under Rule 35, by whom his Paper-book will be prepared, either in accordance with Rule 45 or with Rule 49, and such declaration shall be noted in the order book of the Appeal. The declaration shall be in the following form —

In this Appeal I/we,
Appellant/Appellants, declare that the Paper-book will be prepared by Mr an Advocate of this Court, who is duly qualified to prepare Paper-books under Rule 35, Chapter IX of the Appellate Side Rules .

The Officer in charge of the Judicial Department shall thereupon make over to the Advocate so named the duplicate copy of the Respondent's list filed under Rule 20, giving the Respondent notice thereof

35 Any Advocate who has practised in the High Court for a period of three years, or who has practised in a Muffasal Court for not less than three years and in the High Court for not less than one year, shall be entitled to prepare a Paper-book under these rules

Provided that a Division ~~by~~ on being satisfied, either on the report of the Registrar or otherwise, that any Advocate has been negligent, incompetent, or careless in the preparation of a Paper-book, may disqualify such Advocate from preparing Paper-books for such period as to it may seem proper

37 (a) An Advocate authorised under Rule 34, who has filed a declaration under Rule 36, shall be afforded all reasonable access to the original record in order to enable him to make transcripts of the papers and do other acts necessary to the preparation of the Paper-book, but he shall not be entitled to remove such original record from the Court's office. Certified transcripts of the papers shall be furnished to him if he so desires, upon payment of the usual rates.

(b) Such Advocate shall himself deal with the original records made over to him, and is hereby prohibited from entrusting them to the care of any other person. For the purpose of translating and copying documents in any case, he alone will be permitted to have access to the original record of such case.

(c) Such Advocate shall be permitted to utilize the services of one reader or Muharrir to assist him in such work. He must however himself be present and continuously in possession of the records, and on his leaving the office, the records must be returned to the Officer of the Court in charge, and the work of preparing the Paper-book must at once cease the reader or Muharrir leaving with his employer.

(d) In the case of any Paper-book in which a map has to be inserted such Advocate shall be allowed to utilize also the services of a draughtsman who will be allowed access to the records on the same terms as the reader or Muharrir.

Provided that every additional Advocate allowed shall have already entered appearance on behalf of the Appellant, be eligible under Rule 35, and comply with the provisions of Rule 36

The provisions of clauses (a) to (d) of this Rule shall apply to all the Advocates thus employed in the preparation of a Paper-book and they shall be jointly responsible under the Rules of this Chapter for the proper and punctual preparation of the same

38 (a) The time within which the examination of translations should be completed is, as follows —

Provided that the Registrar may, in any proper case, pay the printer's fees to the printer

40 It shall be the duty of the examiners of Translations to report through the Taxing Officer to the Registrar any case in which the translations have been carelessly, negligently or imperfectly done and it shall be the duty of the Taxing Officer to report to the Registrar any case in which the preparation of any other portion of the Paper-book has been carelessly, negligently, or imperfectly done. The Registrar if he thinks fit, will report any such matter to the Court who may take action under the proviso to Rule 35, and may either in addition to, or without taking such action direct that the whole or any portion of such funds, as are lying in the Court, to the credit of the account of the Paper-book concerned be withheld from the Advocate in question, and may pass orders for the disposal of the funds so withheld

41 When a case is ready for hearing, the Officer in charge of the Judicial Department shall furnish the Advocates engaged on either side with the copies to which they are entitled under Rule 49 or Rule 53. 44 The supplementary Paper-book after the receipt of finding of a lower Court in a case referred under Order XLI, Rules 25 and 27, Civil Procedure Code, shall be governed by the Rules of this Chapter

45 Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules, the Registrar may, upon application made to him, direct that, in Appeals below Rs 5,000 in value in which if Parts I and II of the Paper-book were printed, the total number of pages contained in the Paper-book would be 25 or less, 12 typewritten copies of the Paper-book shall be prepared at the cost of the parties. 46 (1) Paper-books in Appeals valued under Rs 10,000 shall be prepared entirely in the office of the Advocate for the Appellant and the Advocate concerned will be free to print his Paper-book in any press he chooses whether such press be on the list referred to in Rule 54 or not, but the Advocate will be responsible to the Court that the Paper-book has been prepared and printed with due care and diligence. Bad work on the part of the press will bring the Advocate concerned within the mischief of the proviso to Rule 35.

(2) The examination of translations shall be done on the fee system by a panel of Examiners formed for the purpose from the practising Advocates of the Court (to be known as the "Below" panel) a list of Advocates forming such panel being maintained in the office of the Court from which the Respondent will select an Examiner for examining the translations made by the Appellant's Advocate.

Provided—

(a) That if the Respondent fails to enter appearance by the time the Appellant submits his translation for examination he shall lose his privilege to select the Examiner, and the translation shall be examined by an Examiner from the "Below" panel to be selected by the Registrar.

(b) That where it appears to the Registrar that a particular Examiner is overworked and another is underworked, it shall be open to the Registrar to call for a fresh nomination or to direct that the work be done by some other Advocate on the panel.

(c) That if the Advocate for the Respondent is on the panel of Examiners, it shall not be competent for him to nominate himself.

(d) That where more Advocates appear for one Respondent or set of Respondents and select different Examiners the nomination by any one of such Advocates first received by the office should prevail and that, subject to that condition the nomination by one of the Advocates appearing for the principal Respondent should have preference over the nomination by the Proforma Respondent.

(3) The Paper-books must be prepared within the period specified in Rule 39 but in calculating the said period the time actually taken in examining the translation shall be deducted

47 The estimate for the preparation of the Paper-books in such Appeals shall state separately the cost of translating, editing, printing, etc., at the following rates —

- (a) Estimating at 10,000 words per rupee,
- (a1) Estimating charge for maps— $12\frac{1}{2}$ per cent of the cost of tracing the same,
- (a2) Estimating charge for photographs— $12\frac{1}{2}$ per cent of the cost of producing the negative,

- (c) Examining translations at 300 vernacular words per rupee, three figures being counted as one word,
- (d) Copying at the rates specified in Chapter XIII,
- (e) Editing the Paper-book at eight annas a page, if it is printed, and at five annas a page if it is typed,
- (f) Lithographing, drawing or tracing maps (where necessary)—actual cost,
- (g) Printing fee for 24 copies (ordinary matter with marginal notes)—actual cost, not exceeding Re 1-2 per page, tabular matter—actual cost,
- (h) Taxing the Paper-book costs at annas two per page

NOTE (1) —The above rates are liable to alteration

(2) The charge for editing includes the charge for Indexing, if the Paper-book is printed, and that for stationery if the Paper-book is typewritten

(3) If the document to be translated is in any language other than the vernacular of Bengal and Assam, the rate prescribed by Rule 8 and the note thereunder in Chapter XII will apply

(4) Each item of cost in the preparation of the Paper-book at the rates specified above should be calculated to the nearest anna (fraction below half an anna being omitted and half an anna or over being reckoned as one anna)

The entire cost estimated as above shall be deposited with the Accountant of the Court and from such deposit the Court's office will keep the undertaking Advocate supplied with funds to carry on the work of the preparation of the Paper-book. When the Paper-book is finally prepared the cost shall be taxed under the direction of the Registrar.

48. The Paper-books for the use of the High Court in such Appeals shall be printed and edited in accordance with the following directions —

(i) The printed Paper-book shall consist of two parts in the same volume, where practicable, viz., Part I and Part II. Part I shall contain the record of the proceedings in the lower Court, and shall include all the papers mentioned in Rule 11. These should be printed strictly in chronological order, that is, in the same order as the Index. Part II shall contain the exhibits and documents relevant to the subject-matter of the appeal which should be arranged in the manner prescribed in Rule 15, each document to show its exhibit mark and whether it is a plaintiff's or defendant's document (unless this is clear from the exhibit mark). Each Part should be pagged at the foot of each page. The heading to each document should consist of the number of exhibit mark and the description of the document in the Index with the date, and the corresponding English date must be given if the document bears any other date.

(ii) The Index of Part I shall be in chronological order and shall be placed at the beginning of the volume. Part II shall have two Indices, one in chronological order and the other in order of the exhibit marks. These Indices should be placed immediately after the Index to Part I. The documents in Part I should be numbered consecutively, while those in Part II should not be numbered apart from the exhibit mark. The Index should contain a correct and full description of each document and reference to the pages in the printed Paper-book. Whenever any document included in Part I or II of the Paper-book is dated according to Bengali fashion, the corresponding English date for each document must be entered in the Index.

(iii) All papers which are not in English shall be translated into that language. Such translation and the original English papers shall be arranged and printed in Parts I and II in the order prescribed by the first sub-clause of this Rule.

- (iv) Maps forming part of a Paper-book shall be included in the Index, but shall not be bound up with the other papers in the Paper-book. Such maps shall be drawn or printed on durable paper and they shall form a separate packet with a separate list.

Translations of vernacular phrases or figures that form part of a map must be submitted on a correct tracing of the map in question.

- (v) Each document shall have a marginal note which is to be repeated on each page over which the document extends, viz —

- (a) The short name of the Court shall first appear,
- (b) The marginal note of the document shall then appear consisting of the number and description of the document in the Indices with the date except in the case of oral evidence,
- (c) In the case of oral evidence "plaintiff's evidence" or "defendant's evidence" shall appear beneath the name of the Court and then the marginal note consisting of the number in the Indices and the witness's name with "examination" "cross-examination" or "re examination" as the case may be.

49 Twenty-four copies of the Paper-book shall ordinarily be printed by the Appellant's Advocate, and filed in the office of the Court. On the application of either party, the Registrar may direct a larger number to be printed. In any case 10 copies shall be retained for use in the High Court. The service of Paper-books on the parties under Rule 41 will be regulated as follows —

To the Appellants—Three copies, or one copy for the use of each Advocate who has appeared, whichever is more,

To the Respondents—One copy only for the use of the Advocate or all the Advocates, who has, or have, appeared for each set of Respondents,

Subject to a maximum of seven copies on either side if 24 copies have been printed. On this basis, less than 14 copies have been distributed between both sides, additional copies up to that number may be supplied for use at the hearing on application to the Officer in charge of the Judicial Department, but the latter should, if possible, retain copies for such of the Respondents who may still enter appearance in the Appeal.

C—Appeals from Original Decrees valued at Rs 10,000 or over

50 Paper-books in all Appeals valued at Rs 10,000 or over shall be prepared entirely in the Court's office subject to the condition that only translations shall be made by the Appellant's Advocate, the examination of such translations being done on the fee system by a separate panel of Examiners (to be known as the "Above" panel) appointed by the Court for this purpose

Such Paper-books must be prepared within the period specified in Rule 39. Delay on the part of Editors and Examiners of Translations will be no excuse for extending the time. But such delays will be reported immediately on their occurrence to the Registrar by the office for necessary orders, and the Registrar may then, in proper cases, extend the time for the preparation of the Paper Books

51 The estimate for the preparation of the Paper-books in such Appeals shall be prepared in accordance with the particulars in Rule 47 above, except that—

- (i) For "eight annas" in clause (e) should be read "ten annas",
- (ii) For "24 copies" in clause (g) should be read "64 copies",
- (iii) For "Re 1-2 per page" in clause (g) should be read "Re 1-3 per page",
- (iv) For "annas two per page" in clause (h) should be read "anna one per page"

The entire estimated cost shall be deposited with the Accountant of the Court and from such deposit the Court's office will keep the undertaking Advocate supplied with funds to carry on the work of preparation of the Paper-book. When the Paper-book is prepared and filed it shall be finally taxed by the Registrar.

52 Paper-books for the use of the High Court in such Appeals shall be printed and edited in accordance with the directions in Rule 48 above, with the additional direction that the printing of each separate document and exhibit shall begin on a separate sheet.

53 (a) There shall ordinarily be printed and filed in the Court's office 64 copies of the Paper-book, 24 copies of which shall be bound copies for the use of the High Court and 40 unbound copies, the latter being filed in a sealed cover and kept in safe custody in the Paper-Book Department for use in the event of a Privy Council Appeal being filed. Provided that the Registrar may, when necessary, direct a larger number of Paper-books to be printed.

(b) Of the 24 bound copies 10 copies shall be retained for the use of the Court and the remaining 14 copies distributed to the Appellant and the Respondent in the proportion laid down in Rule 49.

54 The printing of Paper-books in such cases will be done only by the presses approved by the Court a list of which shall be maintained in the Court's office. The Advocate concerned will be free to select any press from this approved list of presses but instances of indifferent work, delay, etc., in the printing of Paper-books by any such press shall be brought immediately to the notice of the Registrar, who may direct the removal of the press or presses concerned from the list or pass such order or orders as to him seem proper.

D—Analogous Appeals from Original Decrees and Orders, some valued under, and some at or over, Rs. 10,000

55 In analogous Appeals from Original Decrees and Orders some of which are valued below and some at Rs. 10,000 or above all the Appeals shall be treated as Appeals valued at Rs. 10,000 or above, for the purpose of the preparation of the Paper-books, unless on a verified petition duly filed, the Advocate for any party obtains orders of the Registrar for relaxing the Rule in any particular case.

Part III—Appeals from Appellate Decrees.

56 The Paper-books in all Appeals from Appellate Decree will consist of the following papers —

- (a) The judgment of the first Court,
- (b) The judgment of the lower appellate Court,

(c) Any judgment or orders of remand passed in the case either by the lower appellate Court in Appeal or by the High Court on Second Appeal,

(d) The Memorandum of Second Appeal,

(e) A front leaf containing the number of the cause, the names of the Judges of the two Courts below, the names of the parties and of their Advocates, the date of the institution of the suit, the date of the judgment of the first Court, the date of the judgment of the lower appellate Court, the date on which the Appeal was filed and the date on which the Appeal was decided

NOTE (1).—The Advocate for the Appellant shall, before the hearing of the Appeal serve on the Advocate for the Respondent a typewritten copy, or a typewritten copy of the translation, as the case may be, of any document, other than those mentioned above, which he considers necessary for the decision of the Appeal, and shall also provide two such typewritten copies, or typewritten copies of the translation, for the use of the Division Court. If he fails to do so, he shall not refer to such document at the hearing, and no adjournment of the hearing of the Appeal will be granted on this account, unless the Court otherwise directs

NOTE (2).—If, in any Second Appeal the Bench at the time of the preliminary hearing under Order XLI, Rule 11, Civil Procedure Code, or the Advocate for the Appellant desires that translations of the plaints or written statements should be prepared, the Advocate for the Appellant shall, before the hearing of the Appeal serve on the Advocate for the Respondent typewritten copies of the translations of such plaints or written statements, and shall also provide two such typewritten copies for the use of the Division Court

57 Except as otherwise provided in these Rules, in each case of Second Appeal including Appeals under Chapter X of the Bengal Tenancy Act the Registrar shall cause to be prepared at the cost of the parties six typewritten copies of the Paper-book as aforesaid

58 In the case of Second Appeals not exceeding Rs 50 in value, other than Appeals under Chapter X of the Bengal Tenancy Act, and in Second Appeals from Orders (including orders under Section 47, Civil Procedure Code) irrespective of the value of such Appeals, and in Appeals from Remand Orders under Order XLI, Rule 23, Civil Procedure Code, in which the valuation of the Appeal does not exceed Rs 50, the Registrar shall cause to be prepared three typewritten copies of the Paper-book as aforesaid for the use of the Judges and the Advocate for the Deft in Registrar, if any, and no charge shall be levied from the parties on account of the preparation of such Paper-books. If there is no Advocate on behalf of the Deputy Registrar representing any minor, then the spare copy of the Paper-book (third copy) may be sold at Rs 3, if the Appellant or the Respondent desires to purchase the same

59 In the case of Appeals from Appellate Decrees and Appeals from Remand Orders under Chapter XLI, Rule 23, Civil Procedure Code, in which the valuation of the Appeal exceeds Rs 50 and in all Appeals under Chapter X of the Bengal Tenancy Act (irrespective of value), the Appellant shall within 30 days from the date of the registration of the Appeal, deposit the sum of Rs 10. Upon registration each Appeal shall be entered in a list in form No 14 (civil) of Appendix I which will be displayed outside the Appeal Section concerned and a copy of this list shall be sent to the Bar Association's Library. This shall constitute sufficient notice of the date of registration. The Respondent shall at the time of entering appearance deposit the sum of Rs 5 in full payment of the cost of the preparation of typewritten Paper-books.

Upon the Appellant depositing the sum of Rs 10 aforesaid, the Registrar shall cause to be prepared six typewritten copies of the Paper-book in accordance with Rule 58 in the Court's office. Two of these six copies will be for the use of the Court, two for the Appellant (to be used both at the preliminary hearing and at the final hearing), one for the Respondent and one spare. After admission, as the Respondent or separate sets of Respondents enter appearance, through different Advocates, they will be charged at the rate of Rs 5 for each copy of Paper-book supplied. The Appellant shall supply a copy of the Paper-book to the Advocate for the Deputy Registrar, if there is a minor Respondent represented by the latter, out of the two copies supplied to him as aforesaid, or by purchasing an additional copy at the rate of Rs 5.

Provided that in Appeals from Appellate Decrees in which there was an order of remand passed by the lower appellate Court and in which the previous judgments (original and appellate) will have to be included in the Paper-book, the charge for the Paper-book to the Appellant will be Rs 12 instead of Rs 10 and to the Respondent Rs 6 instead of Rs 5 as in other cases.

No refund of the deposit mentioned above will be allowed on the ground that Paper-books were not ready at the hearing of the Appeal under Order XLI, Rule 11, Civil Procedure Code, in cases fixed by the Court, on the application of the Appellant, before the Appeal has been placed on the Weekly List.

This Rule shall also govern all cases in which deposits have been made before the date it comes into force

60 In case of batches of analogous Appeals of the classes mentioned in Rule 59 (i e., all Appeals from Appellate Decrees, Appeals from Remand Orders under Order XLI, Rule 23, Civil Procedure Code, in which the valuation of the Appeal exceeds Rs 50 and all Appeals under Chapter X of the Bengal Tenancy Act), the Appellant shall, within 30 days from the registration of the Appeal, deposit in full payment of the cost of preparation of type-written Paper-books a sum of Rs 10 for the first Appeal, the charge for the analogous Appeals being Re 1-8 per Appeal up to four such Appeals and annas 12 for every such Appeal in excess of four, the additional charge not exceeding Rs 10 in any case. Upon registration each Appeal shall be entered in a list which shall be displayed outside the Appeal Section concerned and a copy of this list shall be sent to the Bar Association's Library. This shall constitute sufficient notice of the date of registration.

In such cases the Respondent on entering appearance shall deposit Rs 5 for the First Appeal, and half the charge prescribed for the Appellant in respect of the analogous Appeals, the additional charge not exceeding Rs 5 in any case. The principle of this Rule will apply to each set of Respondents who enter appearance through separate Advocates.

NOTE.—In a case in which some of the analogous Appeals are above Rs 50 in value and some below Rs 50 in value the principle of the above Rule shall apply to the whole batch.

61 Where analogous Appeals have been presented in separate batches each batch of such Appeals presented by the same Appellant, or by the same Advocate representing different Appellants, shall be considered as a separate batch of analogous Appeals and the cost of preparation of the Paper-book shall be deposited for each batch of such Appeals separately and used according to the provisions of Rule 60.

In the case of single Appeals presented by different Advocates, or Appellants in person, such cost shall be deposited as provided in Rule 59 for each such separate Appeal, notwithstanding that such Appeals may be analogous to others.

62 If in a Second Appeal above Rs 50 in value an Advocate desires to move the Court for an order for stay of execution in the lower Court under Order XLI, Rule 5, Civil Procedure Code, on the same day that an Appeal is filed, and if the Appeal is in order and is accepted by the Stamp Reporter, the Advocate shall provide a copy of the Memorandum of Appeal with annexures for the use of the 2nd Judge at the preliminary hearing. If such Appeal is admitted under Order XII, Rule 11, Civil Procedure Code, the sum of Rs 10 or Rs 12 shall be deposited (as required by Rule 59), but if the Appeal is dismissed no such deposit need be made.

63 No work in the matter of the preparation of the Paper-book shall be undertaken until the deposit required under the provisions of Rule 59, has been made by the Appellant, unless the Registrar shall otherwise direct.

64 In case of the Appellant or the Respondent failing to make the necessary deposit under Rule 59, the Officer in charge of the Judicial Department shall lay the matter before the Registrar who may at once cause the Appeal to be set down before the Division Court for orders. If the Appellant or the Respondent fails to satisfy the Court as to the delay, the Appeal may be dismissed for want of prosecution, or may be decreed ex parte, as the case may be, or the Court may pass such other order as it may deem proper.

65 Additional Paper-books over and above those which may be supplied to the parties under Rule 59 shall be charged for at the rate of Rs 5 per copy.

66 When a case is ready for hearing the Officer in charge of the Judicial Department shall include it on the General List in form No 15 (civil) of Appendix I, a copy of which shall be displayed on the notice board of the Appeal Section concerned, and a copy sent to the Bar Association's Library for information. This will be considered as sufficient notice to the Advocate concerned that the case is ready for hearing.

or valued at Rs 10,000 or more, shall apply, respectively, to every First Appeal from an Order of the like value (including an Order under Section 47, Civil Procedure Code), passed by a Subordinate Court not being an Order under Order XLI, Rule 23 of the same Code, with the following modifications —

Form of medical certificate for candidates for direct recruitment to the Bengal Educational Service.

The attention of the Medical Board is specially directed to the following —

No person will be deemed qualified for admission to the service who shall not satisfy Government that he has no disease, constitutional affection or bodily infirmity unfitting him, or likely to unfit him, for the service. It should be understood that the question of fitness involves the future as well as the present and that one of the main objects of medical examination is to secure continuous effective service, and in the case of candidates for permanent appointment to prevent early pension. It is at the same time to be noted that the question is one of the likelihood of continuous effective service, and that the rejection of a candidate need not be advised on account of the presence of a defect which in only a small proportion of cases is found to interfere with continuous effective service. Before filling up the form it should be ascertained from the candidate whether he has been previously pronounced unfit for Government service by any duly constituted medical authority in India or elsewhere.
